Upon the dissolution or winding up of this corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all of its debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes as designated by the Board of Trustees of this corporation, and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law.

ARTICLE VI

The period of existence and duration of the life of this corporation shall be perpetual.

(A) To establish funds for the maintenance and management of all monies or properties, both real and personal, tangible or intangible which may be delivered to the corporation, and to manage such funds to the best interest of and for the purposes of the corporation, and in consistence with, insofar as is possible, the purposes for which such monies and/or properties were delivered to the corporation.

(B) To receive gifts, donations, grants of money or property directly or in trust, or otherwise, from any foundation, citizen, municipality, state, business, or United States government delivered to said corporation for any purpose general or incidental to the purposes for which this corporation is formed.

(C) To enter into such contracts and to incur such obligations as are consistent with the objects and purposes of this corporation, but the private property of the officers, directors and members of the corporation shall be exempt from the debts of the corporation, and no officer, director or member shall be individually or collectively liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the corporation unless he or they have purposely attempted to circumvent the law and therefore placed the corporation in jeopardy.

(D) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire real or personal property of any kind, tangible or intangible and to sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole or any part of such property or rights, and generally do anything or perform any act which shall be necessary and proper to the best interests of said corporation in accomplishing any of the objects and purposes herein set forth.

(E) To borrow money, to issue bonds, debentures, notes and other obligations of this corporation from time to time for any of the objects or purposes of this corporation, and to mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or convey in trust or otherwise any or all of the property of the corporation to secure the payment thereof.

(F) To invest on behalf of itself or others, any money or property of the corporation and such additional funds as it may obtain, or any interest therein, in any manner, to vary the investments of the corporation, and generally to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of, deal with, and turn to account, any of the assets of the corporation.

(G) To endorse, guarantee, and secure the payment and satisfaction of loans, bonds, debentures, obligations, and evidences of indebtedness, to guarantee and assure the payment or satisfaction of interest on obligations to assume the whole or any part of the liabilities, existing or prospective, of any person, corporation, firm or association.

(H) To do any and all such other acts, things, business or businesses in any manner connected with or necessary, incidental, convenient or auxiliary to any of the objects hereinbefore enumerated or calculated, directly or indirectly, to promote the purposes of the corporation, and in carrying on its purposes or for the purpose of attaining or furthering any of its purposes, to do any and all acts and things, and to exercise any and all other powers which a natural person could do or exercise and which now or hereafter may be authorized by law, and in any geographical location.

(I) And to promote the above charitable, and educational purposes the corporation shall have authority to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Business Corporation Act of Idaho. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Corporation shall exercise only such powers as are in furtherance of the exempt purposes of organizations set forth in Section 501 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the regulations thereunder as the same now exist or as they may be hereafter amended from time to time.

ARTICLE VII

The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a board of directors of not less than three nor more than fifteen in number, with the exact number, manner of selection and qualifications as determined by the By-Laws. Directors of this corporation shall be members of the corporation, as may be determined by the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VIII

Any person in sympathy with the causes of this corporation and desiring to become a member thereof shall be allowed to do so according to the requirements as set forth within the classes of membership and the rights of each class as stated in the By-Laws.

The manner of election or appointment and the qualifications and rights of the members will be set forth in the By-Laws as adopted by the Board of Directors. The corporation may provide in its By-Laws the terms and conditions upon which, and the time when, membership may cease; the mode, manner and effect of the expulsion of a member; the method, time and manner of withdrawal; the rights of members to vote by proxy or by mail; and any other thing in the furtherance of, but not in conflict with these Articles.

ARTICLE IX

These Articles may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the membership of said corporation present and voting at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose provided that sufficient time of notification has been given --at least a three day notice.
