This organization was created in 1993 as a 501(c)(3) non-profit as a means for securing group insurance rates for small business users of the local business incubator. It also was to help members market the products they made in the incubator commercial kitchen. Over time, membership declined but with the establishment of a replacement kitchen, interest in the revival of NISFA, Inc., could grow and the purposes for which it was created would again become necessary. I am acting as Secretary in the mean time. KM
