construction, leveling of farm land, road building, development of real estate, and construction of buildings of every kind and character in every way.

2. To do any of the things necessary and incidental to the purposes and things set forth in the preceding paragraph, which may be deemed necessary and reasonable by the Board of Directors.

3. To have and exercise all of the powers now or hereafter conferred by the laws of the State of Idaho upon corporations organized pursuant to laws under which this corporation is organized and to do any and all acts mandatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

4. To invest the assets of the corporation in property of every kind and character, real, personal or mixed, tangible or intangible wherever situated and however held, including but not limited to money, choices in action, securities, stocks, bonds, warrants, mortgages, notes and other obligations and evidences of interest indebtedness of any person, firm, or corporation, foreign or domestic, or of any government or subdivision or agency thereof. That the corporation shall have the power to deal in real estate of all forms regardless of whether it be leasing, owning outright, investing in or the sale of any real property wherever situated.

To hire and employ agents, servants and employees and to enter into agreements of employment and collective bargaining and to act as agent, contract, trustee, factor or otherwise, either alone or in company with others.

5. To let concessions to others and to do any of the things that this corporation is empowered to do, and to do, make, perform, and carry out contracts and arrangements of every kind and character of any person, firm, association or corporation, or any government or authority or subdivision thereof.

6. To lease equipment from any other corporation to carry out the purposes of this corporation and to pay rents for such lease equipment to the owner thereof under any circumstances deemed reasonable by the Board of Directors.

Nothing in these paragraphs and this section shall be construed as giving this corporation the right, powers, or privileges not permitted to it by law, but the occurrence in any of the foregoing clauses of this article of any purpose, power or object not prohibited by the laws of the State of Idaho of the United States of America, or any other state, or district, in which this corporation may carry on business shall not invalidate any other purpose, power, or objects not otherwise prohibited by reason of contiguity or apparent association therewith.

FIFTH: Directors Powers: In furtherance, and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to:

1. To make and alter bylaws of this corporation; to fix the amount to be reserved as working capital over and above its capital stock paid in; and to authorize and cause to be executed, mortgages and liens upon the real property and personal property of this corporation.

2. Pursuant to the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the issued and outstanding stock, having voting power or when authority by the written consent of at least two-thirds (2/3) majority of the holders of the voting stock issued and outstanding, the Board of Directors shall have the power and authority at any meeting to sell, lease or exchange all of the property and assets of this corporation, including its goodwill and corporate franchise, upon such terms and conditions as its Board of Directors deems expedient and for the best interest of the corporation.

SIXTH: Corporate Stock: The capital stock of this corporation shall be twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be divided into twenty-five hundred shares of stock at ten dollars ($10) per share. No distinction shall exist between the shares of this corporation and all such shares shall have the same right in the corporation.

SEVENTH: Capitalization: All or any portion of the capital stock may be issued for cash or payment for real or personal property, services, or any other right, or thing of value, for the uses of the corporation, and when so issued, shall become and be fully paid, the same as though paid for in cash at par; and the directors shall be the sole judges of the value of any property, thing or right acquired in exchange for the capital stock.

EIGHTH: Increased Capitalization: From time to time the capital stock may be increased according to law, and may be issued in such amounts and proportion as shall be determined by the Board of Directors and may be permitted by law.

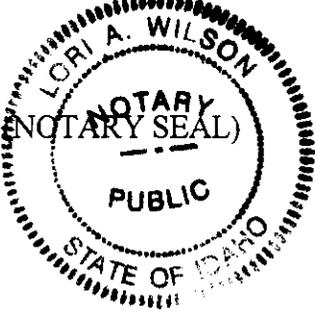

NINTH: Incorporators: The name and post office address of each of the incorporators and a statement of a total number of shares subscribed for by each is as follows:
