property, whether real or personal, or any other things of value. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit the Corporation to carry on any business for profit, to exercise any power, or to do any act that a corporation formed under the Act, or any amendment thereto or substitute therefor, may not at that time lawfully carry on or do.

ARTICLE VI LIMITATIONS

No part of the net earnings or the assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article V hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be for the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended from time to time.

ARTICLE VII NO MEMBERS

The corporation shall not have any members.

ARTICLE VIII BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors. The number of Directors serving on the Board of Directors shall be fixed in accordance with the Corporation's Bylaws, which number shall be no less than three. Other than the Directors constituting the initial Board of Directors, who are designated in these Articles, the Directors shall be elected by the existing Directors of the Corporation in the manner and for the term provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

The names and street addresses of the persons constituting the initial Board of Directors are:

ARTICLE IX DISTRIBUTION ON DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all the assets of the Corporation consistent with the purposes of the Corporation to such organization or organizations as shall at that time qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended from time to time, in such manner as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so distributed shall be distributed by the district court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for the purposes or to such organizations, as such court shall determine to be consistent with the purposes of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

A. Limitation of Liability.

1. Directors. No director of the Corporation will be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director except liability for: (i) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which the director is not entitled; (ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the members; or (iii) an intentional violation of criminal law.

2. Officers. No officer of the Corporation will be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as an officer except for liability for: (i) the amount of a financial benefit received by an officer to which the officer is not entitled; (ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the members; or (iii) an intentional violation of criminal law.

B. Indemnification.

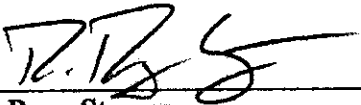

1. Generally. To the extent provided in these Articles and in the Bylaws, the Corporation shall indemnify, advance expenses to, and may purchase insurance to protect any person. If these Articles or the Bylaws are amended or repealed to restrict indemnification rights, then the broader indemnification rights that existed before the repeal or amendment will govern claims for indemnification that concern events that occurred before the amendment or repeal.

2. Mandatory Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to any director, officer or other person to the fullest extent of the law for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director, officer or agent of the Corporation, except liability for: (i) the amount of a financial benefit received by the person to which the person is not entitled; (ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the members, if any; or (iii) an intentional violation of criminal law.

ARTICLE XI BYLAWS

Provisions for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Corporation shall be set forth in the Bylaws. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be authorized to amend the Corporation's Bylaws at a properly noticed special or regular meeting of the Board of Directors.

DATED this 26 day of FEBRUARY, 2013.

R. Ryan Stearns
