Section 1.10 Mandatory Indemnification of Members

The Company shall defend and indemnify the Members, as well as their respective directors, officers, shareholders, managers, members, partners, officers, trustees and the like, as the case may be, if any, (individually and collectively the "Indemnified Party") to the fullest extent authorized or permitted under applicable law, as now or hereafter in effect, against any and all claims, damages, losses, settlements, fees, penalties, costs and other expenses of any kind or description that the Indemnified Party may incur directly or indirectly as a result of serving or having served as a Member of the Company. All such rights to indemnification and defense shall continue indefinitely as to any person who has ceased to be a Member of the Company, and they shall inure to the benefit of such Indemnified Party's heirs, executors, personal and legal representatives and successors-in-interest. The rights to indemnification and defense conferred under this Section shall include the right to be paid by the Company the expenses incurred in defending or otherwise participating in any proceeding in advance of its final disposition. All rights herein conferred shall be in addition to any and all other rights that the Indemnified Party may hold or hereafter acquire from any source and in any manner whatsoever, including, without limitation, rights arising under any applicable law, under these Certificate of Organization of the Company, under the Operating Agreement, under any management agreement or other contract or agreement, or by virtue of any vote of the Members of the Company. No subsequent repeal, amendment or other modification of this Section shall eliminate or otherwise adversely affect the provisions hereof with regards to alleged actions or omissions of an Indemnified Party which predate any such repeal, amendment or other modification.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned organizer has hereunto affixed its signature this 14 day of August, 2009.
