Articles of Incorporation
Of
FOUNDATIONS IN GENESIS OF IDAHO, INC.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENT, that the undersigned, being of legal age and citizens of the United States, for the purpose of forming a body corporate in accordance with the provisions of the Idaho Non-Profit Corporation Act, §§30-3-01, et seq., of the Revised Statutes of the State of Idaho, do hereby make, execute, and acknowledge these Articles of Incorporation, in writing as follows:

ARTICLE I

The corporate name of this association shall be Foundations in Genesis of Idaho, Inc.

ARTICLE II

This association shall be a non-profit corporation. This organization is not organized for profit, and no part of the net earnings shall inure to the benefit of any private shareholder.

ARTICLE III

The period of duration of this association shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE IV

The purposes for which said association is formed are:

(a) The following list of purposes shall be the sole and only purposes for which said association is formed, and these Articles and the following list of purposes shall comprise the limits on the activities of the association, which said association shall not have the power, authority, or ability to operate outside said purposes. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under §501(c)(3) et seq. of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and in particular the individual code sections hereinafter referenced, if any.

(b) The association is constituted so as to attract substantial support from a representative number of persons and entities in the State and community in which it operates. No substantial part of the activities of the association shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the association shall not participate in, or intervene in, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(c) The purposes for which the association is to be formed are for purposes within the meaning of §501(c)(3) et seq. of the Internal Revenue Code. To said ends, the association may cooperate with other associations not created for propaganda purposes to advance such purposes as are within the foregoing Code sections, to the extent not in conflict with said Internal Revenue Code sections and attendant law or regulations, including carrying on of nonpartisan legislative activities to further the above goals. The association may do everything necessary, suitable, or proper for the accomplishment, attainment, or furtherance of, or do every other act or thing incidental, appurtenant, growing out of, or connected with, the purposes, objects, or powers set forth in these Articles, whether alone, or in association with others, and shall possess all the rights, powers, and privileges now or hereafter conferred by the laws of Idaho. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing the association to possess any purpose, object, or power, or to do any act or things:

1. forbidden by law to a not-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Idaho; or,
 2. which, either expressly or by interpretation or by operation of law, would prevent it from qualifying and continuing to qualify as a Corporation described in §§501(c)(3) et seq. of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, nor to engage directly or indirectly in any activity which would cause the loss of such qualification.
- d. The incorporator of the association, together with such other persons as said incorporator may elect, shall comprise the initial Board of Trustees, which said board, by majority vote, shall administer the above purposes.
- e. The association may do any and all things necessary and incidental in carrying out the aforesaid objects, or any of them, and exercise the usual powers of corporate bodies.
- f. The association may sue and be sued, complain and defend in any law or equity.
- g. The association may have and use a corporate seal, which may be altered at pleasure.
- h. The association may elect such officers and appoint such agents as the business of the association shall require and allow them suitable compensation.
- i. The association may make by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States and/or of this State, for the management of its property and the regulation and government of its affairs.
- j. The association may wind up and dissolve itself, or be wound up and dissolved in the manner provided by the statutes of this State. Upon the winding-up and dissolution of this association, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the association, the remaining assets shall be distributed to a non-profit fund, foundation or association which has established its tax exempt status under §501(c)(3) et. seq. of the Internal Revenue Code.
- k. This association is organized exclusively for purposes within the meaning of §501(c) et. seq. of the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under said section of the Internal Revenue Code.
- l. The association may accept donations from other persons and/or entities in support of the above purposes.
- m. The primary purpose of the corporation shall be to explain to the general public, and thereby help them understand, origins, history, and our present world as revealed by scientific discovery interpreted through a Biblical world-view. This will aid the general public in the search for absolute reality and through consistent interpretation of scientific facts, accelerate that search, as well as equipping and training the general public to defend the Biblical world-view as it relates to science, history, and precepts for living.

ARTICLE V

At the time of formation, the affairs of the association shall be under the control of Trustees; and those who shall, as Trustees, manage the affairs of the association for the first year, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, are:
