Dear Customer:

Unfortunately, it is necessary to return the attached document(s) to you. The filing has been sent back for correction for the following reason(s):

- The newly appointed registered agent must sign the document.

In order to correct your filing, please locate it in the web portal under 'My Work Queue'. Select 'Make a Correction' in the Action column on the right (click the > following the file name). This will open the wizard at the first tab. Click through each page using the 'Next' button, stopping to make any required corrections as you go.

If a document upload needs to be replaced, use the red X to the right of the uploaded document name to remove the original upload. Then upload the correct document. Proceed through the pages using the 'Next' button to the end.

Once all issues have been corrected, select 'File Online' to re-submit your document (the payment process will not recur). If we can be of assistance, please contact us at the phone number noted below.

Sincerely,

Business Division
