corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article 8: Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt proposes of independent Christian Churches or Churches of Christ within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article 9: The articles of incorporation may be amended at any annual or special meeting of the members called for that purpose by the affirmative vote of no less than two-thirds (2/3) of the active adult members voting either present or by written and signed proxy provided that the proposed amendment shall be submitted in writing to the active adult members not more than seventy (70) and no less than fifty (50) days prior to the meeting to amend the articles.

In witness whereof, we incorporators have hereunto subscribed our names this twelfth day of September, in the 2004th year of our Lord.
