VIII.

The Board of Directors shall have the general power to act for and on behalf of the corporation in any manner not prohibited by statute or by these Articles of Incorporation. Said board shall, specifically, and not by way of limitation, have the power to sell, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge or make other disposition of the business, property, assets or franchises of the corporation upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real and personal or mixed, as shall be authorized by the board; provided that whenever the directors desire to sell, exchange or lease the principal part of all of the business, they may do so only upon a vote of two-thirds of the entire membership of the corporation at a meeting duly called for such purpose. The terms "sell, exchange or lease" as herein used shall not include mortgage or pledge. Instruments of conveyance or encumbrances as herein authorized shall be executed by the President or Vice-President of the corporation and be attested by the Secretary-Treasurer thereof.

The Board of Directors shall likewise be empowered (and this power is conferred by these Articles of Incorporation not by way of limitation but by way of particular inclusion only) to establish minimum water and sewer charges and schedule charges for water users in excess to the minimum, to review and revise established rates in the furtherance of the business of the corporation at any time during the corporation's fiscal year and to make and levy such assessments upon the members as it may deem necessary, advisable and in the interests of the corporation.

IX.

There shall be no capital stock issued by the corporation, and membership in the corporation shall be limited to persons, corporations or bodies politic owning, controlling or occupying land situate within the area served by the water system of the corporation and reasonably accessible thereto. Applicants for membership approved by the Board of Directors thereupon and upon payment of the membership fee as fixed herein shall be admitted to membership, provided that an occupant of land who is otherwise eligible for membership shall be entitled or be admitted to membership of the capacity of the corporation's system or source of water supply is required to meet the needs of existing members.

X.

Each member certificate will entitle the member to a water and sewer connection as outlined in the By-Laws.

XI.

The members holding twenty-five (25) percent of the voting rights of all outstanding memberships shall constitute a quorum at any regular or special meeting of the membership.

XII.

There shall be an annual meeting of the members of the corporation to be held at such time and place as provided in the By-Laws. Each member shall be entitled to one vote only.

XIII.

The officers of the corporation shall be a President, a Vice-President, who shall be members of the Board of Directors, and a Secretary-Treasurer to be qualified and elected in such manner and for such term as provided in the By-Laws.

XIV.

Sale, conveyance or encumbrances of all or any part of the property of the company may be made by the Board of Directors, provided, however, that such sale, conveyance or encumbrance is authorized by a majority of a quorum of the members present at a regular membership meeting or a special membership meeting called for the purpose, and instruments of conveyance or encumbrance shall be executed on behalf of the company by the President and attested by the Secretary of the company.

XV.

1. No officer, Director or member shall at any time receive or become entitled to receive any pecuniary profit from the operation hereof either by dividend or other distribution or by payment of any salary, wage or reward of any kind in excess of reasonable compensation for services actually rendered by any officer, agent, Director or employee or member of the corporation.

2. No dividend or distribution of the funds or other property of the corporation shall be made until all debts are fully paid and then only upon its final dissolution, nor shall any distribution be made except by a vote of a majority of the members of the corporation or a quorum thereof as provided in the By-Laws. In the event of dissolution, for the purpose of merger, the net funds of the corporation, if any, shall be transferred to any other or several non-profit organizations having one or more purposes in common with this corporation.
