Articles of Incorporation

Article 2

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, and also to provide a pastoral retreat operated for the religious purpose of ministering to individuals in full-time religious service, active and retired ministers and their families, and to provide both spiritual and financial support.

Article 8

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, all assets shall be distributed to World Vision, Inc., a 501(c)(3) exempt organization under the Internal Revenue Code. If World Vision, Inc., at the time of distribution does not qualify as an exempt organization, then all the assets are to be distributed to Christian Childrens Fund, Inc., a 501(c)(3) exempt organization. If World Visions, Inc. and the Christian Childrens Fund, Inc. fail to qualify as an exempt organization under 501(c)(3) then the assets are to be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article 9

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its trustees, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax law.
