Article Four

Duration

The nonprofit corporation's duration is perpetual.

Article Five

Purposes

The nonprofit corporation is organized and will be operated exclusively for general public and charitable purposes as set forth in Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), including but not limited to the charitable support of the underprivileged population which may include but is not limited to women, children, veterans, and the disabled with limited access to resources for education, training, and other activities. In furtherance of these purposes, the corporation may engage in all lawful activities and pursuits consistent with the powers described in the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act and authorized by Code Section 501(c)(3), including but not limited to, providing the underprivileged with scholarships for education, training for employment and daily living, and other funding for the underprivileged including but not limited to public and charitable support for housing, food, clothing, and other necessities. The Corporation may also consider other distributions for public and charitable purposes for the underprivileged population.

Article Six

Dissolution

When the nonprofit corporation dissolves, the Board of Directors will, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, distribute all corporation assets to one or more organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes that are, at that time, qualified as exempt organizations under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and serve a similar charitable purpose as the nonprofit corporation.

If any assets are not distributed under the preceding paragraph, the court of appropriate jurisdiction for the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, will dispose of those assets exclusively for charitable purposes or to one or more organizations that are, at that time, qualified as exempt organizations under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), as the court determines.

Article Seven Restrictions

No part of the net earnings or assets of the nonprofit corporation will inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its director, officers or any other private persons. But the nonprofit corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services provided and make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the Articles of Incorporation.

No part of the activities of the nonprofit corporation may include propagandizing or influencing legislation. The nonprofit corporation may not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributions of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

The nonprofit corporation may not exercise any power or engage directly or indirectly in any activity that would invalidate its status as a corporation exempt from federal income taxation:

as a corporation exempt from federal tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3);

as a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Internal Revenue Code Section 170(c)(2); or as a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of State of Idaho.

Article Eight Board of Directors

The nonprofit corporation is organized on a non-stock basis and will have no members. The Board of Directors will have authority for all affairs of the nonprofit corporation and may exercise all powers of the nonprofit corporation as permitted by federal law, state law, and the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the nonprofit corporation as in effect from time to time.

The number of directors to constitute the first Board of Directors is five. After this initial Board of Directors is organized, it may change the number of directors in the manner provided in the By-Laws and consistent with the laws of the State of Idaho. The initial members of the Board of Directors are:

David Ogden

Jim Rhoades

Karen Kershaw
