9. Preemptive Rights. The corporation elects to have preemptive rights.

10. Indemnification/Liability. To the fullest extent permitted by law, and the Act, this corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person and to advance expenses incurred or to be incurred by such person in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding threatened or commenced by reason of the fact said person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. Any such indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. Any indemnification or advancement of expenses so granted or paid by the corporation shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representative of such a person.

No director or officer shall be liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty except liability for:

(i) The amount of a financial benefit received by a director or officer to which he or she is not entitled:

(ii) An intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the stockholders; or

(iii) An intentional violation of criminal law.

(iv) A director shall also be liable for a violation of Section 30-1-833, Idaho Code.

In witness whereof, I have subscribed these Articles of Incorporation this 14th day of April, 2006.
