Article IV

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or against, any candidate for public office.

The corporation is not organized, and shall not be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit. It does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits, or dividends to its members or to any private shareholder, as defined for purposes of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or individual.

Upon the dissolution and winding up of the corporation, after paying or adequately providing for its debts and obligations, its remaining assets shall be distributed to a nonprofit corporation, which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Article VII

The corporation will have no members.

Article VIII

No officer or director of this corporation will be personally liable for the debts or obligations of this corporation, nor shall any of the property of the officers or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation. The officers' and directors' statutory immunity from suit shall be preserved to the furthest extent allowed by law. The corporation shall indemnify and reimburse the officers and directors for all losses, claims, damages, or expenses of any kind caused by a suit or claim resulting from the operations of this corporation.
