8. No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other person, firm, corporation, association or other organization, and no act of the corporation, shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors or officers of the corporation are parties to such contract, transaction or act or are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in the same or are directors or officers or members of any such other firm, corporation, association or other organization, provided that the interest of such director shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors authorizing or approving the same, or to a majority thereof. Any director of the corporation who is a party to such transaction, contract, or act or who is pecuniarily or otherwise interested in the same or is a director or officer or member of such other firm, corporation, association or other organization, may be counted in determining a quorum of any meeting of the Board of Directors which shall authorize or approve any such contract, transaction or act, and may vote thereon with like force and effect as if he were in no way interested therein. Neither any director nor any officer of the corporation, being so interested in any such contract, transaction or act of the corporation which shall be approved by the Board of Directors of the corporation, nor any such other person, firm, corporation, association or other organization in which such director or officer may be interested or of which such officer or director may be a director, officer or member, or any stockholder thereof, shall be liable to the corporation for any loss incurred by the corporation pursuant to or by reason of such contract, transaction or act, or for any gain received by any such other party pursuant thereto or by reason thereof.

9. The corporation shall indemnify each present and future officer and director of the corporation and each person who serves at the request of the corporation as an officer or director of any other corporation, whether or not such person is also an officer or director of the corporation, against all costs, expenses, and liabilities, including the amounts of judgments, amounts paid in compromise settlements and amounts paid for services of counsel and other related expenses, which may be incurred by or imposed on him in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding, investigation, or inquiry hereafter made, instituted, or threatened in which he may be involved as a party or otherwise by reason of his being or having been such officer or director, or by reason of any past or future action taken or authorized or approved by him or any omission to act as such officer or director, whether or not he continues to be such officer or director at the time of the incurring or imposition of such costs, expenses, or liabilities, except such costs, expenses, or liabilities as shall relate to matters as to which he shall in such action, suit or proceeding be finally adjudged to be, or shall be liable by reason of his gross negligence or willful misconduct toward the corporation in the performance of his duties as such officer or director. As to whether or not a director or officer was liable by reason of gross negligence or willful misconduct toward the corporation in the performance of his duties as an officer or director, in the absence of such final adjudication of the existence of such liability, the Board of Directors and each officer and director may conclusively rely upon an opinion of legal counsel selected by or in the manner designated by the Board of Directors. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of other rights to which any such officer or director may be entitled as a matter of law or otherwise, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of each such officer or director.

I certify that I have read the above statements and that the same are true and correct.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the incorporator has hereunto set his hand this 5th day of July, 2000.
