ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
CHRISTIAN FAMILY FELLOWSHIP INCORPORATED

PREAMBLE

Inasmuch as, it is the express purpose of God, our heavenly Father, to call out of the world redeemed people, who shall constitute the body or the church of Jesus Christ, built and established upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone; and since, the members of the body, the church of Jesus Christ, are enjoined to assemble themselves together for worship, fellowship, counsel, and instruction in the word of God, and for the exercise of those spiritual gifts and offices set forth in the New Testament;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED as follows:

A. That we recognize ourselves as a body of Christian believers according to the scriptural plan for the local assembly, in order that we may worship God as a united body, exercising all our inalienable rights and privileges given to the church by Jesus Christ as recorded in the Bible, and do hereby adopt the Articles of the Constitution and By-Laws and agree to be governed by them.

ARTICLE I.

ARTICLE II.
Character of Corporation

Section 1. Non-profit Character. This corporation is not formed for monetary profit, and no part of the earnings of the corporation shall inure to the Corporation, of any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no Director or officer of the Corporation and no private individual shall be entitled to share in distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

Section 2. Nonpolitical. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 3. Tax-exempt Status. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501 © (30) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may afterward be amended or by organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 © (2) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may afterward be amended.

ARTICLE III.
Duration

The Corporation is to have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE IV.

Purpose and Powers

Section 1. General Purposes. The general purposes for which the Corporation is organized are the following:

- A. To receive and maintain real and personal property, or either of them, subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in these Articles of Incorporation, and to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and principal thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 © (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended; and
- B. To have and to exercise any and all powers and privileges now or hereafter conferred by the laws of the State of Idaho, as contained in Title 30, Chapter 3, Idaho Code, or under any act amendatory thereof, subject, however, to the conditions and limitations set forth in Article II above, and subject, also, to the condition that no such power or privilege shall be exercised in a manner or for a purpose which is inconsistent with the primary purposes set forth below in this Article or which is inconsistent with any other provision in these Articles of Incorporation.

Section 2. Primary Purposes. The primary purposes for which the Corporation is organized are the following:

- A. To preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ;
- B. To propagate missionary endeavor, and to send missionaries to home and foreign fields;

- C. To establish churches, to foster their development, and to provide for, and foster, the preaching and teaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in all places;
- D. To ordain ministers for the work of evangelization and missionary work in all places;
- E. To promulgate Christian faith, beliefs, and practices;
- F. To maintain and operate Christian seminars and meetings, rallies and meeting places to train persons to minister effectively to the needs of people;
- G. To do and undertake activities for the betterment of humankind through the principles and teaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; and
- H. To do all of the foregoing in accord with the Statement of Faith which is attached to these Articles as "Exhibit A" hereto, which "Exhibit A" is hereby made a part hereof as is here set forth in full.

Section 3. Powers. The foregoing clauses pertaining to the purposes for which the Corporation is organized are to be construed both as objects and powers. The enumeration herein of specified objects and powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the Corporation, subject, however, to the conditions and limitations set forth in Article II above, and subject, also, to the condition that no power or privilege shall be exercised in a manner or for a purpose set forth above in this Article or which is inconsistent with any other provision in these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE V. Members

The Corporation shall have members. The authorized numbers and qualification of its members, the different classes of membership, if any, voting and other rights and privileges, shall be set forth in the By-Laws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI.
Affiliation

This Corporation is not, at the time of the filing of these Articles, affiliated with any religious denomination, order or organization. Subject to such provisions, if any, as may pertain thereto in the Corporation's By-Laws, the Board of Trustees shall have the authority to cause the Corporation from time to time to affiliate or otherwise contract with one or more religious denominations, orders, or organizations, but not in a manner or upon any conditions which would be in conflict with any provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, including Exhibit A hereto.

ARTICLE VII.
Statement of Faith

The Corporation and its members do and shall agree to promulgate, and will promulgate, the Statement of Faith of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII.
Initial Registered Office and Agent

The address of the initial registered office of the Corporation is Christian Family Fellowship, 913 Ninth Street, Rupert, Idaho 83350 and the name of its registered agent at such address, as of the filing of these Articles, is Daniel I. Coto. The address will automatically change at the moment the corporation will purchase their own property. The new address will be the same of the new property.

ARTICLE IX.
Directors

Section 1. General Powers. Subject to such limitations of the powers of the Board of Directors as may be set forth in these Articles of Incorporation or in the Corporation's By-Laws, the powers of the Corporation shall be exercised, its properties controlled, and its affairs conducted by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Number of Directors. The number of directors shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors, but the number shall not be fewer than three (3).

Section 3. First Board of Directors. The Corporation's Board of Directors shall be composed of the following persons, whose names and addresses are as follows, until such time as additional or different persons are appointed by the Board of Directors to serve on the Board of Directors.

Name:

Section 4. Election of Directors. The election of any persons to serve on the Board of Directors of the Corporation in addition to or in place of all or any of the persons named in Section 3 above in this Article shall be by the Board of Directors, as provided in the By-Laws. In the event, however, that all positions on the Board of Directors are vacant at the same time, three (3) members may be elected by the members of the Corporation, to serve on the Board of Directors. Directors may be removed in the manner set forth in the Corporation By-Laws.

Section 5. Qualifications. Prior to January 1, 1996 to be elected or serve, at any time prior to January 1998 as a member of the Board of Directors, the person must satisfy all of the following qualifications:

- A. The person must be nominated by the senior pastor and approved by the Board of Directors.
- B. The person must have a life style that is consistent with the standards set down in I Timothy 3:2-7, as follows: An overseer must be above reproach, having one spouse, temperate, prudent, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not addicted to wine or pugnacious, but gentle, uncontentious, free from the love of money, one who manages his own household well, keeping his children under control with all dignity, not a new convert, having a good report among all men.

On and after January 1, 1998:

To be elected or serve, at any time on or after January 1, 1999, as a member of the Board of Directors, the person must satisfy all of the following qualifications:

- A. The person must be a member of the Corporation; and
- B. The person must be nominated by the senior pastor and approved by the Board of Directors; and
- C. The person must have a life style that is consistent with standards set down in I Timothy 3:2-7, as follows: An overseer must be above reproach, having one spouse, temperate, prudent, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not addicted to wine, or pugnacious, but gentle, uncontentious, free from the love of money, one who manages his own household well, keeping his children under control with all dignity, not a new convert, having a good report among all men; and
- D. The person must be ordained by the Corporation as a minister.

Section 6. Terms. The terms of the Directors shall be as set forth in the Corporation's By-Laws.

Section 7. Change to Board of Elders. On and after January 1, 1999, the Board of Directors shall be known as, and be, the Board of Elders. As of that date, all of the provisions of these Articles applicable to Directors shall be deemed to refer, instead, to Elders, and all of the provisions of these Articles applicable to the Board of Directors shall be deemed to refer, instead, to the Board of Elders. This provision shall be self-effectuating and automatic.

ARTICLE X. Dissolution

All property of the Corporation shall irrevocably be dedicated to the purpose of the Corporation as set forth in these Articles of Incorporation and the Corporation's By-Laws. In the event at any time any proceeding or action is instituted or undertaken to dissolve the Corporation, all property of the Corporation which Corporation have been paid and discharged or provided for, upon such a dissolution, shall be transferred, conveyed, paid over, and delivered to such organization which is then exempt from taxation Code and its Regulations as they then exist (or the successor to such provision) and which is designated by the last Board of Directors of the Corporation and approved by the members of the Corporation by action adopted at a meeting of the members. The decision to dissolve the Corporation shall require the vote to two-thirds (2/3) of all members of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XI. Amendments

Section 1. Action by Board of Directors. No amendment of the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation may be voted upon by the members unless and until the Board of Directors (to be known as the Board of Elders after January 1, 1998) adopts a resolution setting forth the proposed meeting of the members.

Section 2. Action by Members. Upon compliance with the provisions of Section 1 above and upon compliance with the notice and other requirements of Idaho law, the amendment shall take effect if approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present and voting.
