ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
THE COMMUNITY CHILDREN'S HOME, INCORPORATED
A NONPROFIT CORPORATION

KNOW ALL PERSONS BY THESE PRESENTS:

We, the undersigned, citizens and residents of the State of Idaho and the United States of America, over the age of twenty-one (21), for the purpose of organizing and forming a Nonprofit Corporation under the provisions of the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act (Title 30, Chapter 3, Idaho Code, sections 30-301 to 30-322) and all laws amendatory and supplementary, and for such purpose, do hereby associate ourselves and make, sign and acknowledge, certify, adopt and file this certificate and Articles of Incorporation for that purpose as follows:

ARTICLE I

Name of Corporation

The name of this corporation shall be and is The Community Children's Home, Incorporated.

ARTICLE II

Nonprofit Status

The corporation is a nonprofit corporation under the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act (Title 30, Chapter 3, Idaho Code, sections 30-301 to 30-322), as hereinafter amended.

This corporation is not organized for pecuniary profit. This corporation shall not have the power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends; no part of the net earnings or assets (if any) of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, be distributable to, nor shall dividends be paid to, any member, director, officer, or any other private person at any time whatsoever. Provided that, the corporation shall have the power to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in accordance with the corporate purposes set forth in Article IV (below).

No part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing, or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (of the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE III

Duration

The period of the duration of this corporation is unlimited and of perpetual duration.

ARTICLE IV

Purposes

The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

A. Specific and Primary Purposes:

Section One. The promotion, through, among others, charitable and benevolent purposes, of the Social Welfare of mentally disabled and emotionally troubled children by providing low cost placement and housing for children otherwise unable to obtain said housing on the open market or who require specialized housing to meet their particular needs.

Section Two. To provide treatment, therapy, counseling and other services to aid in the emotional and psychological well being of these children.

Section Three. To do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering or attainment of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be persons, organizations (of any kind or nature) such as corporations, firms, associations, trusts, institutions, foundations or government bureaus, departments and agencies.

B. In furtherance of, but not in limitation of, the foregoing purposes, the corporation shall have the following general purposes and powers:

Section One. To acquire, purchase, construct, own, hold, invest in, lease, manage, develop, maintain, rehabilitate, improve, sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of and deal in real or personal property, whether improved or unimproved, and any interest therein, of every kind and description.

Section Two. To borrow money and execute such evidence of indebtedness and such contracts, agreements, mortgages, deeds, leases, assignments, conveyances, security agreement or other instruments as may be necessary.

Section Three. To develop and administer programs for mentally or emotionally troubled youth, dealing with rehabilitation, education, employment, welfare and health, in order to assist them in adjusting themselves to their environment; to train them in vocations and avocations; to aid them in all their activities; and to be of assistance in solving their particular problems.

Section Four. To do any lawful act or thing necessary or proper to carry out the foregoing purposes and powers. To exercise all other rights and powers conferred upon Nonprofit Corporations formed under the general Nonprofit Corporation Act and (consistent with the above) the Idaho Business Corporation Act of the State of Idaho.

Section Five. Provided, however, that the corporation shall not engage in any activity whatsoever, including those mentioned above, that are not in furtherance of the charitable purpose of the corporation. Further, all the foregoing purposes and powers shall be exercised exclusively for charitable purposes and in such manner that the corporation shall qualify as a tax exempt organization under the Internal Revenue Code of the United States of America and applicable Idaho State Tax Statutes, including Internal Revenue Code §501(c)(3), as they are currently or shall hereinafter be in force and effect.

ARTICLE V

Membership

Section One. The corporation is to have members.

Section Two. The members of the corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities or obligations of the corporation.

Section Three. The management of the affairs of the corporation shall not be managed by the members but shall instead be managed by a board of directors elected by the members.
