ARTICLE V PURPOSES

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized and will be operated are as follows:

A To foster intelligent cooperation and a cordial understanding among the members as to the proper relationship between the functions of the attorney, certified public accountant, chartered life underwriter, trust representative, and certified financial planner in the field of estate planning.

B To assist its members in keeping abreast of laws and conditions affecting business and personal taxation and the knowledge of each member with his sphere.

C To promote the common business interests of the members of the Corporation within the meaning of Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time.

D To seek legislation in furtherance of the Corporation's exempt purposes through lobbying activities and other means consistent with Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time.

E To exercise all powers granted by law necessary and proper to carry out the foregoing purposes. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit the Corporation to carry on any business for profit, to exercise any power, or to do any act that a corporation formed under the Act, or any amendment thereto or substitute therefor, may not at that time lawfully carry on or do.

ARTICLE VI LIMITATIONS

No part of the net earnings or the assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article V hereof. The Corporation may engage in some political activities provided such activities are not the Corporation's primary activity. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time.

ARTICLE VII
