Article Six Board of Directors

The Board of Directors will have one Director.

The name of the Director is:

Patrick L. Waite 4105 S. Clocktower Ave., Caldwell, Idaho 83607

Newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of Directors or any vacancies in the Board of Directors resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office, or other cause will be filled by a majority vote of the stockholders. These initial Directors will hold office for a term that expires at the next annual meeting of stockholders, at which time the stockholders will elect the successors.

The Board of Directors will fix by resolution the compensation or salary paid for attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board in which a Director actually participates. Each Director will be reimbursed for all out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred in connection with performing the duties of a Director.

Article Seven Limitations on Authority of Board of Directors

Even after due authorization, approval, or advice of the action by the Board of Directors as required by law, any of the following corporate actions also require approval by the stockholders by an affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast to be effective and valid:

- A. Issuing shares of stock of any class now or later authorized, or any securities exchangeable for, or convertible into such shares, warrants or other instruments evidencing rights or options to subscribe for, or otherwise acquire such shares.

- C. Making any loans or advances other than to employees and suppliers in the ordinary course of business.
- D. Amending the Corporation's Bylaws.
- E. Amending these Articles of Incorporation.

Article Eight Purposes

The Corporation is formed:

to provide dentistry professional services.; and to do anything permitted of corporations under the provisions of the Act, as amended from time to time.

Article Nine Release from Personal Liability

A Director will not be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director, except liability for:

the amount of a financial benefit received by a Director to which he or she is not entitled under Idaho law;
an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the shareholders, individually or collectively;
any distribution for which a Director votes that is not lawful under Idaho law; or an intentional violation of criminal law.

Article Ten Indemnification

The Corporation must indemnify every Director or officer—and his or her heirs, executors, and administrators—against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her, as well as any amount paid upon judgment, in connection with any civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding to which he or she may be made a party by reason of having been a Director or officer of the Corporation. But this indemnification excludes any action resulting in the liability of the Corporation for:

a financial benefit received by a Director or officer to which he or she is not entitled under Idaho law;

an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the shareholders, individually or collectively;

any distribution for which a Director or officer votes or approves that is not lawful under Idaho law; or an intentional violation of criminal law.

Article Eleven

Power to Enact, Amend, and Repeal Bylaws

The Corporation's Board of Directors and stockholders hold the exclusive power to make, alter, amend, or repeal the Corporation's Bylaws.

These Articles of Incorporation have been signed on November 18, 2016.
