ARTICLE THREE

The location and Post Office Address of the registered office and principal place of business of said corporation shall be Blackfoot in the County of Bingham, State of Idaho.

ARTICLE FOUR

That the duration of this corporation shall be perpetual unless dissolved by process of law.

ARTICLE FIVE

That the total authorized number of par value shares is one hundred thousand shares of the par value of One Dollar ($1) each; the aggregate par value of the total authorized number of par value shares is One Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($100,000). The amount of such stock may be issued in such amounts and proportions from time to time as shall be determined by the Board of Directors subject, however, to the provisions made hereafter and such restrictions as may be now or thereafter created or imposed by law.

ARTICLE SIX

All shareholders of this corporation consent to have its income taxes to its share holders under the provisions of Code, Section 1372 (a) Internal Revenue Code and all other State and Federal Statutes and Regulations, permitting such election and each shareholder on demand of any other shareholder execute a certain consent to such taxation. The business of the corporation shall be so conducted as to qualify for such privilege and no person shall be entitled to become a share holder without signing a written consent to this article. No stock shall be transferred to any person or persons which would dis-qualify this corporation from the benefits of its election to be taxed as a partnership and any effort to transfer to any other such person shall give the remaining shareholders the option and privilege of buying the shares of the shareholder attempting to so transfer at par value or book value which ever may be the lesser with ten percent (10%) of the purchase price to be paid within 30 days and the balance within six months.

ARTICLE SEVEN

(a) That save as hereinafter provided, no share or interest in the company shall at any time be transferred to any person not already a shareholder, so long as any shareholder is willing to purchase said share or interest at the same price and on the same terms as would govern upon a transfer to a person not already a shareholder, provided in any event the terms to a shareholder shall not require more than ten per cent within thirty days with six months to pay the balance.

(b). That in order to ascertain whether any shareholder is willing to purchase any such share or interest, at such price and upon such terms, the person, whether a shareholder of the company or not, proposing to transfer the same, hereinafter called the "retiring shareholder" shall give notice in writing by registered mail or personal service, to the company and to each of the other shareholders at the address listed on the corporation books, that he desires to transfer the same, specifying the price per share and terms proposed, and such notice shall constitute the company, his agent for the sale of the share or other interest to any shareholder or shareholders of the company at the price and upon the terms specified in said notice or as provided in subparagraph (a) hereinabove, whichever is more favorable to a purchasing shareholder.

(c). That if any one or more shareholders hereinafter referred to as the "purchasing shareholder," desire to purchase such share or interest or any part thereof for the price and terms offered or specified hereinabove, they shall within thirty days after personal service of the notice specified in the preceding paragraph or the mailing of said notice as therein provided, file an acceptance thereof with the secretary or other responsible officer of the company and pay therewith to the company for the retiring shareholder at least ten per cent of the purchase price, and the retiring shareholder shall thereupon be bound to transfer such share or interest according to the terms of the offer.

(d). That if in any case the retiring shareholder after becoming bound as aforesaid, makes default in transferring such share or interest, the company may receive the balance purchase money and shall thereupon cause the name of the purchasing shareholder to be entered upon the register as the holder of such share or interest, and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the retiring shareholder, his executors, administrators or assigns, and the receipt of the company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing shareholder, and he shall not be bound to see to the application thereof, and after the name of the purchasing shareholder has been entered in the register in purported exercise of the aforesaid power, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person, and the purchasing shareholder shall be deemed and taken to be the owner of the said share or interest.

(e). In case more than one shareholder desires to purchase the share or interest of the retiring shareholder so offered for sale and the purchasing shareholders do not otherwise agree among themselves, the share or interest transferred shall be transferred to the purchasing shareholders in proportion to their respective shares or interests in the company at the time of the offer by the retiring shareholder, making all necessary adjustments to avoid fractions of shares and for that purpose giving the preference in all cases to shareholders who have the largest holdings.

ARTICLE EIGHT

That save and except the stock subscribed for by these incorporators in the amounts set out hereafter and the designation of stock dividends, if any, no capital stock of the said corporation shall at any time be issued or allotted, except upon the terms of the then existing shareholders having the prior right to subscribe for and take such additional capital stock at par, in proportion to their holdings, subject to such regulations and adjustments as the directors from time to time determine upon, with a view to avoiding the allotment of fractional shares.
