ARTICLE FOUR

PURPOSES AND POWERS

The purposes of the corporation and its powers are the following:

1. To have specifically, and exclusively, an educational and charitable purpose for all its activities, and thereby promote and improve the social welfare, and to have no purpose nor engage in any activity which would not be educational or charitable or welfare within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

2. To develop and maintain quality advocacy, information, interpretation and referral programs designed to aid and assist low-income persons in Idaho; to work as a liaison between all community and governmental organizations; and to assist low-income persons in accessing all available governmental, educational and private services.

3. To receive from any and all available sources, including the proceeds from grants, fees, donations, bequests and legacies, funds for and contributions to the development, maintenance and operation of offices and resource centers, and for any other purposes for which this corporation is formed.

4. All of the properties and assets of this corporation shall be, and are, irrevocably dedicated to educational, charitable and welfare purposes and no part of the monies, properties or assets of this corporation upon dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of any private person or individual or any stockholders of the corporation, except as such stockholder may be a corporation organized and operated exclusively for educational, charitable, or welfare purposes, and which is exempt from taxation, and particularly the federal income tax. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

5. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, education or literary purposes and which shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine; provided, however, and subject to the above limitations, if any of such assets have been acquired under a federal grant or contract, their disposition shall be made in accordance with the appropriate instructions of the governmental official responsible under the law for the providing of such instructions under such circumstances. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the District Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

6. The transaction of any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act.
