RE: The Bank Bar LLC – Use of the Word “Bank” in Company Name in Idaho

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Balderas:

The Idaho Department of Finance (Department) received an email from you on June 23, 2023, indicating that you are purchasing a bar and would like to use the business name “The Bank Bar, LLC” in the state of Idaho. You provided additional information by responding to requests via email on the same date. Your request has been reviewed by Department staff. As stated in your email, The Bank Bar, LLC will operate as a bar, currently only serving beer and wine, and will be located at 21 North Dewey Avenue, Middleton, Idaho, in the State Bank building (1906). You went on to state that The Bank Bar, LLC will “not be doing any bank-related business at all.”

Idaho Code § 26-1202 generally prohibits persons from advertising or transacting business in this state under a name or title containing the word “bank,” “banker,” or a word or words of similar import, unless the person holds a banking charter. The Director of the Department may grant a waiver to allow the use of the word “bank,” or words of similar import in certain circumstances. The waiver may be granted if:

- (a) The person is not engaged in banking or trust business;
- (b) The name or title used is not likely to deceive or mislead an individual to believe that the person is engaged in banking or trust business;
- (c) The name or title, or a name or title similar to it, is not already used by another person doing business in this state; and
- (d) The name or title does not suggest or imply that the person is engaged in unlawful conduct.

Based on the information you have provided, it appears that the four factors set forth above, which allow the Director to grant a waiver to use the word “Bank” in your bar’s name in Idaho, exist under the facts you have presented to us. I hereby grant a waiver to you to use the name The Bank Bar, LLC in accordance with Idaho Code § 26-1202(3) and note that the Department does not object to the use of the word "Bank" in the bar's name.

If I can assist with anything else, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Salvador Cruz
