RE: The Boise Food Bank Inc. – Use of the Word “Bank” in Company Name in Idaho

Dear Mr. Flaherty:

The Idaho Department of Finance (Department) received an email from you dated January 14, 2020, requesting a waiver for use of the name “The Boise Food Bank, Inc.” in the state of Idaho. That letter has been reviewed by Department staff. As you indicated in your email, “The Boise Food Bank, Inc.” is a local non-profit organization that gathers food and distributes it to the public.

Idaho Code § 26-1202 generally prohibits persons from advertising or transacting business in this state under a name or title containing the word “bank,” “banker,” or a word or words of similar import, unless the person holds a banking charter. The Director of the Department may grant a waiver to allow the use of the word “bank,” “banker,” or words of similar import in certain circumstances. The waiver may be granted if:

- (a) The person is not engaged in banking or trust business;
- (b) The name or title used is not likely to deceive or mislead an individual to believe that the person is engaged in banking or trust business;
- (c) The name or title, or a name or title similar to it, is not already used by another person doing business in this state; and
- (d) The name or title does not suggest or imply that the person is engaged in unlawful conduct.

Based on the information you have provided, it appears that the four factors set forth above, which allow the Director to grant a waiver to use the word “Bank” in your organization’s name in Idaho, exist under the facts you have presented to us. I hereby grant a waiver to The Boise Food Bank, Inc. in accordance with Idaho Code § 26-1202 and note that the Department does not object to the use of the word “Bank” in its name.
