9. OTHER PROVISIONS:

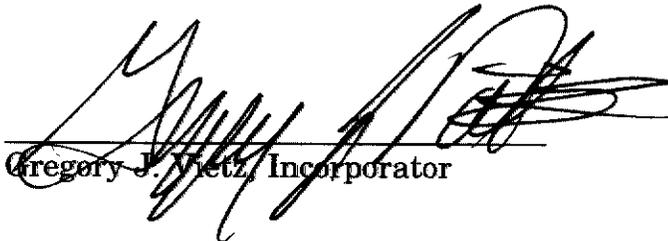

a. Transactions Between Corporations, Officers and Directors. Without in any way limiting the provisions of Idaho law, no contract or other transaction between the Corporation and no act of the Corporation shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of the Corporation are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, or are directors or officers of another corporation; any director individually, or any firm of which any director may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, any contract or transaction of the Corporation, provided that the fact that such director or firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Any director of the Corporation who is also a director or officer of such other corporation, or who is so interested, may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of the Corporation which shall authorize any such contract or such transaction with like force and effect as if he were not such director or officer of such other corporation or not so interested.

b. Stockholder Liability. Without in any way limiting the provisions of Idaho law, the private property of the stockholders of the Corporation shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever, the stock of the Corporation shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever, and the stock of the Corporation shall not be subject to assessment for the purposes of paying expenses, conducting business, or otherwise paying debts or discharging obligations of the Corporation.

9.3. Director and Officer Liability. Without in any way limiting the provisions of Idaho law, the private property of the officers and Directors of the Corporation shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever. No officer or Director shall be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director or officer, except that officers and directors shall be personally liable for: (a) acts or omissions that involve fraud, malfeasance, misfeasance, gross-negligence, or a knowing violation of law, and (b) for the payment of distributions in violation of Idaho Code Section 30-1-48 or its successor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal effective as of the 20th day of July, 1995.

Gregory J. Metz, Incorporator
