- (d) Through its Board of Trustees to appoint and dismiss such officers and employees as may be desirable; define the duties and responsibilities of such officers and employees; and fix their compensation; and require bonds of such of the personnel as the Board deems advisable;
- (e) Adopt BY LAWS regulating and establishing:
 - (1) A defined ecclesiastical government of the church
 - (2) A formal code of doctrine and discipline;
 - (3) A congregational membership not associated with any church and/ or denomination;
 - (4) The training of and an organization of ordained ministers ministering to the congregation;
 - (5) To license and/ or ordian ministers of the gospel and missionaries for the furtherance of the work of this corporation;
 - (6) A literature of the church;
 - (7) Regular religious services including Sunday schools and seminars for the instruction of members;
- (f) To minister and conduct regular religious worship services;
- (g) To adopt and assume names in the furtherance of its nonprofit, tax-exempt purposes;
- (h) To use any and all media in the furtherance of its nonprofit, tax-exempt purposes;
- (i) To provide a local place for the worship of Almighty God, Our Heavenly Father;
- (j) To provide for Christian fellowship for those of like faith, where the Holy Spirit and Jesus, the Son of God, may be honored according to our distinctive testimony;
- (k) To assume the responsibility and the privilege of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ;

- (l) To acquire, hold, operate, mortgage, hypothecate, and dispose of any property (real, personal or mixed) whenever the Board of Trustees deems it necessary or advisable to the carrying out of the corporations tax-exempt purposes.
- (m) To exercise such incidental powers as may reasonably be necessary to carry out the purposes for which the corporation is established, provided that such incidental powers shall be exercised in a manner consistent with its tax-exempt status as a religious organization as for provided in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, of the United States of America.

Notwithstanding any provisions of these Articles to the contrary, the Corporation shall not engage in any political activity proscribed by the said Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, nor shall any income or assets of the corporation inure to the benefit of any member, private individual or business entity.

ARTICLE IV

The number of trustees, and their qualifications, shall be established by the By Laws of this corporation. The Board of Trustees shall be the only voting members of the corporation and shall conduct all of the business of the corporation except as specifically delegated.

ARTICLE V

This nonprofit corporation is formed without any purpose of pecuniary profit to itself or its members and shall have no capital stock.

ARTICLE VI

The private property of the trustees and members of the congregation shall be non-assessable and shall not be subject to the payment of any corporation debts, nor shall the trustees or members of the corporation become individually liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII

Upon dissolution of the corporation for any cause, all of the assets and property, both real and personal, then owned or controlled by this corporation shall revert to and become the property of an eleemosynary institution accorded tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, of the United States of America, to be designated by the Board of Trustees; provided, however, that the just debts and liabilities of the corporation shall first be paid. Upon dissolution, none of the assets or property of the corporation shall devolve to the benefit of any private individual or business entity of the corporation .

ARTICLE VIII

These Articles may be amended at any regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the corporation, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, provided that such amendment shall be adopted by a two-thirds majority of the trustees then in office.
