successors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders of this corporation and successors thereof shall be elected at every annual meeting of the shareholders of this corporation.

ARTICLE XI

The following special charter clauses shall also govern this corporation, but in no event shall they ever be construed to restrict or limit the lawful acts of the corporation:

1. Subject always to the by-laws made by the shareholders, the board of directors may make bylaws; and, from time to time, may alter, amend or repeal any by-laws; but any by-laws made by the board of directors may be altered or repealed by the shareholders at any annual meeting, or at any special meeting, provided notice of such proposed alteration or repeal by the shareholders be included in the notice of the meeting of the shareholders.

2. The board of directors is expressly authorized from time to time to determine whether and to what extent, and at what time and place, and under what conditions and regulations the accounts and books of this corporation, or any of them shall be open to inspection of the shareholders; and no shareholder shall have any right of inspecting any account, book or document of this corporation except as conferred by statute, unless authorized by the resolution of the shareholders and directors.

3. The board of directors shall have power from time to time to fix and determine and to vary the amount to be reserved as a working capital of the corporation, and before the payment of any dividends or making any distribution of profits, it may set aside out of the net profits of the corporation such sum or sums as it may from time to time in its absolute discretion think proper whether as a reserve fund to meet contingencies or for the equalizing of dividends or for repairing or maintaining any property of the corporation or for such corporate purposes as the board shall think conducive to the interests of the corporation, subject only to such limitation as the bylaws of the corporation may from time to time impose.

4. In all elections for directors every shareholder shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy for the number of shares owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or to cumulate such shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal, or to distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he shall think fit.

5. The board of directors shall have the power by resolution passed by a majority vote of the whole board, under suitable provisions of the bylaws, to designate two or more of their number to constitute an executive committee, which committee shall for the time being, as provided in said resolution, or in the bylaws have and exercise all the powers of the board of directors which may be lawfully delegated in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and shall have power to authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it.

6. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the board of directors are expressly authorized to sell, assign, transfer, convey and otherwise dispose of the whole or substantially the whole of the property, assets, effects, franchises and goodwill of this corporation on such terms and conditions as they shall deem advisable.

7. If at any time any shareholders desire to sell and dispose of their stock, said shareholder or shareholders shall first offer it in writing to the board of directors, stating prices and terms, and give the board of directors thirty (30) days in which to place it with the other remaining shareholders. At the expiration of thirty (30) days, if no shareholder has purchased the same, said shareholder or shareholders shall have the right to sell to whom-ever will purchase for the same sums and prices for which it was offered to the board of directors. Shareholders shall also have preemptive rights to purchase and maintain their respective interest in the corporation in the event the corporation should issue additional stock.

8. Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between this corporation and its creditors and/or between this corporation and its shareholders, or whenever a merger or consolidation has been proposed, any dissenting shareholders have the rights and privileges of such dissenting shareholders as provided in Chapter 1, Title 30, Idaho Code.

9. The articles of incorporation or any part thereof may be amended, altered, changed, or repealed by the affirmative vote of the holders of shares entitled to vote thereon or by a writing signed by a majority of the holders of shares who would be entitled to notice of the meeting for such prupose.
