The undersigned, in order to form a Non-Profit Corporation under the provision of Title 30, Chapter 3, Idaho Code, submits the following articles of incorporation to the Secretary of State.

Article 1

The name of the corporation shall be Valley Pride, INC.

Article 2

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is to create in the Portneuf Valley a living environment where pride, enrichment of growth and opportunity, harmony, beauty and service is fostered and sustained.

The mission will be accomplished by bringing together leaders and representatives from all organizations in the Portneuf Valley. This includes giving churches, city and county government, schools, service clubs, private and public agencies, neighborhoods, and individual citizens ownership to the common objective.

Focus will be on individual private properties, neighborhoods, business sites, as well as city and county properties and corridors. The effort will be driven by a master plan, greater education, and awareness of the need and opportunities, shared vision and motivation, complementing and assisting of each individual and organizational objectives, proper and positive enforcement of the city and county codes, and the employment of service where needed from all entities in the community. It will provide a mechanism where projects beyond the capabilities of a single service group can be planned, staffed, and executed. It will assist the community in developing and enhancing the capabilities of service organizations.

This corporation will seek to embrace "The Importance of One and the Power of Many" as it's core value.
