

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE ROBERT NOBLE ESTATE.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENCE, that we, the undersigned, have this day voluntarily associated ourselves together for the purpose of creating a corporation under the laws of the State of Idaho, and for such purpose hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

Article I

The name of this corporation shall be the "Robert Noble Estate".

Article II

The purposes for which this corporation is founded are:

to purchase, acquire, hold, own, sell, and otherwise secure and dispose of personal property and real estate;

to purchase, buy, acquire, hold, own, sell, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise acquire or dispose of mortgages, bonds, and other securities, and stocks of other corporations and to vote such stock;

to construct buildings and other structures on real estate owned by said corporation, and otherwise improve the same;

to plat lands into lots, blocks, or other subdivisions, and to sell and dispose of the same; to borrow money in the name of the said corporation, and to mortgage, pledge, or hypothecate any or all of the property of the said corporation either real, personal, or mixed to secure the payment of the same; to purchase, own or otherwise acquire and to operate electric street or interurban railway lines or systems, and to do all things necessary or requisite for the management, sale, rental or the use or disposition of the same;

to procure franchises and rights- of-way for telephone, electric light, and water rights and water systems, and to lease, sell and dispose of the same;

to acquire, purchase, own, operate, or sell or otherwise dispose of ditches, water and water rights, and the right to the use of water, for irrigation, domestic or other purposes, or for the generation of power;

to acquire, purchase, own, manage, or operate any mining claims, or mines, whether patented or not, and to hold, develop, work, operate, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the same;

to purchase, buy, or otherwise acquire promissory notes, bonds, mortgages, judgments, certificates of sale on foreclosures, or executions, accounts, claims and other evidences of indebtedness, and mortgages, pledges and other securities for the payment of the same;

to purchase, hold, or in any manner acquire horses, cattle, hogs, and other live stock, and to sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of the same;

to purchase, acquire, hold, manage and care for orchards and to handle, sell, and dispose of the crop raised thereon; to engage in the stock raising business, the breeding, feeding, and growing of livestock and to mortgage, sell, and dispose of the same;

to acquire farm lands and to do and conduct a general farm business, and to handle, sell, and dispose of farm products raised thereon and otherwise acquired by said corporation; to conduct, erect, and operate houses, business blocks, power plants, machinery and appliances; to buy or operate, lease or occupy buildings for banks or banking purposes, apartment houses, dwelling houses, offices, stores and other uses of all kinds; to issue shares of stock in the purchase of real estate, personal property, and any or all property of every kind and nature whatsoever;

to issue shares of stock, bonds, and other obligations; to loan and invest money, and to hold, sell and deliver stock, shares, bonds and securities of every kind, and in general to do all things necessary and proper in relation to the powers hereinbefore set forth,

Article III
