ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF THE
CAPITAL JAYCEES

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we, the undersigned, all of whom are natural persons of full age and citizens of the United States, do now, on this 9th day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred sixty-five, hereby voluntarily associate ourselves, and do hereby make and execute the following articles of incorporation, and do hereby unite for the purpose of forming a corporation of social, educational, benevolent and charitable character under the laws of the state of Idaho, and do hereby certify as follows, to wit:

I

That the name of this organization shall be the CAPITAL JAYCEES, Incorporated.

II

That this organization shall be, and hereby is, affiliated with the Idaho Junior Chamber of Commerce, the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Junior Chamber International, and is subject to the constitution and by-laws of these bodies insofar as they affect and prescribe the functions of local junior chambers of commerce and are not in conflict with this constitution.

III

That the location of the principal office and the place where the principal business of said corporation is to be transacted is in the City of Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho. P. O. Box 2368. The Existence of the Corporation is Perpetual

IV

That the purpose of this organization shall be:

- 1) Civic service through the organized efforts of the young men of the community to promote the welfare of the community and its citizens through active constructive projects; and
- 2) To provide the young men constituting its membership training in leadership and to instill civic consciousness to better their usefulness as citizens; and
- 3) To provide younger business and professional men of the City of Boise a medium in training in citizenship and to promote civic, industrial and educational activities of the community; and
- 4) To cooperate with the Boise Chamber of Commerce, or any other chamber of commerce, or any other organization, in advancing its program of usefulness to the city, state and nation; and
- 5) To acquire, hold, own, use and dispose of in any manner, all real and other property whatsoever as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of carrying into effect any one or more of the objects heretofore and hereinafter mentioned, and to mortgage, hypothecate, pledge, sell and otherwise dispose of; to borrow money, and to do all acts and to make, execute and deliver all needful instruments for the carrying on of the said purpose or purposes; and
- 6) To enter contracts, to promote, manage, support, transact, or carry on any other business, or businesses, whether manufacturing, trading, leasing, buying and selling, or either, or otherwise, which may seem to the corporation capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business or interests or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of, or render profitable and useful any of the corporation's property or rights, so long as such business or activity is not forbidden by the laws of the State of Idaho.

V

Any young man of good character between the ages of twenty-one (21) and thirty-five (35), both inclusive, is eligible for active membership in this organization with full privileges thereof.

VI

The government of this organization shall be vested in a board of directors consisting of the officers, the immediate past president, all members who are state officers and not more than nine (9) other members. Said officers shall be: president, internal vice president, external vice president, secretary and treasurer. Said state officers shall be ex-officio members.

The officers and directors of this organization shall be elected in the manner prescribed by the by-laws and shall hold office for a period of one (1) year, or until their successors are duly elected and changed.

VII

That the board of directors shall have the management of the real estate of this corporation and such other management and control as may be prescribed by the constitution and by-laws of this corporation.

VIII

These articles may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present at any regular or special meeting, provided that written notice of the proposed amendment has been mailed to the last known address of each member at least ten (10) days prior to the date of such meeting.

IX
