5. To enter into, make and perform contracts of every kind and description with any person, firm, association, corporation, municipality, county, state or government, or colony or dependency thereof.
6. To purchase, hold, sell and transfer the shares of its own capital stock; provided, it shall not use its funds or property for the purchase of its own shares of capital stock when such use would cause any impairment of its capital except as otherwise permitted by law, and provided further that shares of its own capital stock belonging to it shall not be voted upon directly or indirectly and shall not be entitled to receive dividends.
7. To have one or more offices, to carry on all or any of its operations and business and without restrictions or limit as to amount, to purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, mortgage, sell, convey or otherwise dispose of, real and personal property of every class and description in any of the States, districts, territories or colonies, of the United States, and in any and all foreign countries, subject to the laws of such state, district, territory, colony or country.
8. To acquire, and to make payment therefor in cash or the stock or bonds of the corporation, or by undertaking or assuming the obligations and liabilities of the transferor, or in any other way, the goodwill, rights and property, the whole or any part of the assets, tangible or intangible and to undertake or assume the liabilities of, any person, firm association, to hold or in any manner dispose of the whole or any part of the property so purchased; to conduct in any lawful manner the whole or any part of the business so acquired and to exercise all of the powers necessary or convenient for the conduct and management thereof.

9. To borrow or raise money for any of the purposes of the corporation, without limit as to amount, and in connection therewith, to grant collateral or other security either alone or jointly with any other person, firm or corporation and to make, execute, draw, accept, endorse, discount, pledge, issue, sell or otherwise dispose of promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, warrants, bonds, debentures and other evidences of indebtedness, negotiable or non-negotiable, transferable or non-transferable, and to confer upon the holders of any of its obligations such powers, rights and privileges as from time to time may be deemed advisable by the board of directors, to the extent permitted under the laws of the State of Idaho; to lend and advance money, extend credit, take notes, open accounts and every kind and nature or evidence of indebtedness and collateral security in connection therewith.
10. To have, exercise and enjoy all powers now or hereafter granted to corporations organized under the laws of the State of Idaho, and particularly all of the powers and privileges granted to corporations by Chapter 1, Title 30, Idaho Code, and present and/or future amendments thereto, and to do any act or other thing necessary or convenient for the transaction of the aforesaid business and/or carrying into effect any and all of the aforesaid objections and purposes.
11. To exercise and perform any and all of the hereinabove mentioned and described powers, both within and without the State of Idaho.

III
