ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

APR 30 2 17 PM '93

IDAHO SPORTING CONGRESS, INC.

SECRETARY OF STATE

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That we, the undersigned, all of whom are natural persons of full age and citizens of the United States, in order to form a nonprofit corporation for the purposes herein after stated, pursuant to the provisions relating to nonprofit corporations in the State of Idaho, being Sections 30-301 to 30-332, Idaho Code, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, do hereby certify as follows, to-wit:

I

NAME

The name of this corporation is the "IDAHO SPORTING CONGRESS," INC.

II

PURPOSES

The purposes for which this corporation is formed are to protect public land and water resources and the dependent fish, wildlife, and outdoor recreational opportunities; to inform the public and members of issues relating to conservation and the environment; to research and collect information and disseminate it to the public and interested parties; to encourage through public education, citizen participation in public resource policy formation; to interact and communicate with agencies responsible for public resources on behalf of the public interest.

In connection with the foregoing, the corporation shall have the power to perform any act in furtherance of the aforesaid purposes, but shall not carry on or perform any activity not permitted to be carried on or performed by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

The purposes for which the corporation is to be formed are for scientific, educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1954. The corporation is not organized for the pecuniary profit of its directors, officers, or members, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. The corporation may not issue stock or declare or distribute dividends, and no part of its net income shall inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member. Any monies or assets remaining after the full payment of corporate obligations of all and any kind shall be devoted solely to the charitable, educational and benevolent purposes of this corporation.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as allowed under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, Form 5768, or corresponding sections of any future Internal Revenue Code. The corporation shall not participate in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION IDAHO SPORTING CONGRESS 2

The foregoing statement of corporate purposes shall be construed as a statement of both powers and purposes, and as not restricting or limiting in any way the general powers of this corporation, or their exercise and enjoyment, as they are expressly or impliedly granted under the Idaho Nonprofit Corporation Act.

III

DISTRIBUTION UPON DISSOLUTION

In the event of the dissolution of this corporation, all of the remaining assets and property shall, after necessary expenses thereof, be distributed to a federal, local or state government for a public purpose. No member, trustee or officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon dissolution of the corporation.
