ARTICLE II

Duration

The duration of this corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The purposes for which this corporation is organized and its powers are:

To carry on any lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the laws of the state of Idaho, and which this corporation may deem proper or convenient, or which may be calculated to promote, directly or indirectly, the interests of this corporation or to enhance the value of its property or business, even though such business may not be included in the purposes and powers expressed; and to exercise all of the powers conferred by the laws of the state of Idaho under which this corporation is formed, as such laws are now in effect or at any time in the future may be amended.

ARTICLE IV

ARTICLE VI

Noncumulative Voting

Each shareholder entitled to vote at any election for directors shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by said shareholder for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the shareholder has a right to vote, but no shareholder shall be entitled to cumulate his votes.

ARTICLE VII

Bylaws

The board of directors shall have full power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws, subject to repeal or change by action of the shareholders. This corporation may enter into contracts and otherwise transact business as vendor, purchaser, or otherwise, with its directors, officers and shareholders and with corporations, associations, firms, and entities in which they are or may be or become interested as directors, officers, shareholders, members or otherwise, as freely as though such adverse interests did not exist, even though the vote, action, or presence of such director, officer, or shareholder may be necessary to obligate the corporation upon such contracts or transactions; and in the absence of fraud, no such contract or transaction shall be voided and no such director, officer, or shareholder shall be held liable to account to the corporation, by reason of such adverse interests or by reason of any fiduciary relationship to the corporation arising out of such office or stock ownership, for any profit or benefit realized by such person through any such contract or transaction; provided that, in the case of directors and officers of the corporation (but not in the case of shareholders who are not directors or officers), the nature of the interest of such director or officer, though not necessarily the details or extent thereof, be disclosed or known to the board of directors of this corporation, at the meeting thereof at which such contract or transaction is authorized or confirmed. A general notice that a director or officer of the corporation is interested in any corporation,

ARTICLE X

Indemnification

To the fullest extent now or hereafter provided by applicable law, any person may, and directors and officers shall, be indemnified or reimbursed by the corporation for reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually incurred in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative to which he shall be made a party or threatened to be made a party by reason of his being or having been a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or of any firm, corporation, employee benefit plan or other organization which he served in any such capacity at the request of the corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification or reimbursement shall not be exclusive of other rights to which such person, his heirs, executors or administrators may be entitled as a matter of law. Those persons indemnified hereunder shall be deemed to include the heirs, legal representatives, executors and administrators of such persons. The corporation may, upon the affirmative vote of a majority of its board of directors, purchase insurance for the purpose of indemnifying its directors, officers, other employees and agents.
