ARTICLE IV

Section 1. Purposes. The purposes for which this corporation is formed are, in general, for any lawful purpose; and it may, but not in limitation of the foregoing, receive, hold, own, manage, use, purchase, mortgage and dispose of property of all kinds, real, personal and intangible, whether held absolutely or in trust, or by way of agency or otherwise, for the benefit of those serving in the Armed Forces or otherwise engaged in the activities involved with the conflict with Iraq, and their families.

Section 2. Powers. This corporation shall have and exercise all rights, powers, privileges and immunities provided by the Idaho Non-Profit Corporation Act, Idaho Code Section 30-301 et. seq., as amended.

Section 3. Exempt Status. This corporation has not been formed for pecuniary profit or financial gain, and no part of the assets, income, or profit of the corporation is distributable to, or inures to the benefit of its directors or officers except to the extent permitted under the Idaho Non-Profit Corporation Act. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on or propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, nor intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

Section 4. Resolution of Corporation. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future federal tax code), or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE V

The corporation is to be organized upon a nonstock, certificate of membership basis. Such memberships shall be nonredeemable, nontransferable, and nondividend bearing. The affairs of the corporation shall be vested in and managed by the Board of Directors. The conditions and regulations of membership and the rights and other privileges of the classes of membership shall be determined and fixed by the bylaws. The private property of the members of this corporation shall not be liable for its corporate debts.

ARTICLE VI

No part of the income of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the corporation or any private individual (except that the reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member, trustee, officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation.
