ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
MAGIC GLASS AND PAINT, INC.

THE UNDERSIGNED, natural persons of full age, citizens of the United States and residents of the State of Idaho, do this day voluntarily associate themselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation according to the laws of the State of Idaho and to effect that purpose they do hereby adopt and execute the following Articles of Incorporation, and do hereby certify and declare:

ARTICLE I.

CORPORATE NAME.

The corporation shall be known as Magic Glass and Paint, Inc.

ARTICLE II.

PURPOSES AND POWERS.

The corporation is formed for the following purposes and such other purposes as shall be necessary to implement the purposes stated:

1. To engage in the business of the purchase and sale, wholesale and retail, of paint and paint products and to trade, deal, merchandise and otherwise engage in the painting business.

2. To engage in the purchase and sale and the installation of glass products, to trade, deal and merchandise glass products and to contract for the installation of glass products and to generally engage in all activities associated with the glazing trade and business.

3. To contract for the painting of buildings and other installations and to do all necessary acts in connection with the painting contracting business and trade.

4. To engage in the general contracting business by contracting for the construction of buildings and other physical installations and to take all necessary acts and to engage in all necessary activities essential to the general contracting occupation and trade.

5. The corporation shall have the power to purchase its own shares of stock.

6. In furtherance, and not in limitation of the general powers conferred by the laws of the State of Idaho and by the principles of the common law upon corporations, this corporation shall also have the following purposes and powers, it being hereby expressly provided that the enumeration of specific powers shall not be construed to limit or restrict in any manner the aforesaid general powers of the corporation:

(a) To purchase, hold, sell, improve and lease real estate, and to mortgage and encumber the same; and further, to erect, manage, care for, maintain, extend and alter buildings thereon.

(b) To lend money and negotiate loans; to draw, accept, endorse, discount, sell and deliver bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, obligations and securities of any government or other authority or company. To form, promote, subsidize and assist companies, firms, and partnerships of all kinds; to act as surety and guarantor in any and all types of engagements; to execute, endorse and deliver contracts; to guarantee the prompt and faithful performance and payment of debts, notes, agreements, contracts and undertakings of any other person, firm, partnership or corporation; to act as an accommodation co-maker or guarantor of obligations either as a primary or secondary obligor; to enter into any arrangements with any and all authorities, municipal, local or otherwise, conducive to the company's objects or any of them; and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangement, rights, privileges and concessions. To carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction or operation commonly and generally carried on or undertaken by merchants or manufacturers or which may seem to the company capable of being conveniently carried on or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the corporation's rights or property.

(c) To acquire the good will, rights, property and assets of all kinds and undertake the whole or any part of the obligations of any persons, firms, association or corporation on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon and to pay for the same in cash, stocks, bonds or other securities of this corporation or otherwise; and to acquire and take all or any part of the business assets and liabilities of any person, firm, association or corporation.

(d) To engage in any business whatsoever, either as principal or as agent or both, or as a syndicate, whichever the corporation may deem convenient or proper in furtherance of any of the purposes hereinabove mentioned. To execute, from time to time, general or special powers of attorney to persons, firms, associations or corporations and to revoke the same as and when the Board of Directors may determine; and to do any or all of the things herein set forth to the same extent as natural persons might or could do.

7. Any and all of the rights, powers, privileges or restrictions in these Articles of Incorporation granted and contained, conferred or imposed, may be enlarged, amended, altered, and changed in any manner and to any extent, or repealed by articles of amendment made, executed, authorized and filed in any manner now or hereafter permitted or authorized by the laws of the State of Idaho.

8. Without in any particular limiting or restricting any of the objects and powers of the corporation, it is hereby expressly declared and provided that the corporation shall have the power to issue bonds and other obligations and shares of its capital stock in payment for property purchased or acquired by it, or for any other lawful object in and about its business; to mortgage or pledge any stocks, bonds, or other obligations, or any property which may be acquired by it; to secure any bonds, guarantees or other obligations by it issued or incurred; to guarantee any dividends, bonds, contracts, or other obligations.

9. The several clauses contained in this statement of purposes shall be construed as both purposes and powers, and the statements contained in each clause shall be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause, but shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

ARTICLE III.
