Re: Consent to indistinguishable name

Dear Secretary of State Business Services,

H and H Treatment Programs, LLC is in good standing. It will be selling its assets and will be dissolved within the next few months.

The buyer will form a new entity in May 2023 and desires to name it H & H Treatment Programs, Inc.

In accordance with Idaho Code Section 30-21-20(a)-(d), an existing entity may consent to a new entity having an indistinguishable name.

This letter serves as the requisite Consent Record: H and H Treatment Programs, LLC consents to H & H Treatment Programs, Inc. forming with an indistinguishable name. Because the LLC will be dissolving very near to the date that the new entity will form, it makes the most sense to incorporate under the desired name rather than incorporate under a different name and then go through the name change process after the LLC is dissolved.

Please contact the buyer's attorney with any questions. She is available at Kelsey Jae, 208-559-2525, kelsey@kelseyjae.com.

Thank you,
