ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

MAY 27 1964

UNIVERSITY CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF MOSCOW, IDAHO, INCORPORATED

We, the undersigned, DAVID L. THACKER, DWIGHT H. PACE, TERRY D. LONG, all citizens of the United States, do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of incorporating the UNIVERSITY CHRISTIAN CHURCH of Moscow, Idaho, Incorporated, under the laws of the State of Idaho. Said corporation shall be a non-profit Christian organization dedicated to the public good, serving in Christian education, evangelistic, missionary and related work, according to the New Testament. We hereby sign and acknowledge the following Articles of Incorporation in duplicate originals, as follows:

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be UNIVERSITY CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF MOSCOW, IDAHO, INCORPORATED.

ARTICLE II

The duration of this corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The objects and purposes of this corporation shall be as follows:

1. To maintain a church in the Moscow area of Latah County, State of Idaho.
2. To provide a place or places of worship to God where people submitting fully to the authority of the New Testament of Jesus Christ and recognizing this authority as the only rule of faith and sufficient for all regulation appertaining thereto may assemble; to preach and teach the gospel of Jesus Christ as outlined and authorized in the New Testament.

3. To abide and conform to that standard set forth in the New Testament without addition or subtraction therefrom, in matters of teaching and practice.

4. Undenominational Christianity shall be stressed. Christian unity and fellowship urged by a return to the Bible by rejection of man-made creeds and doctrinal innovations. The all sufficiency of the New Testament for all purposes shall be the authority of this congregation (Church, corporation.)

5. To do and engage in any and all lawful activities (except carrying on a business, trade, avocation or profession for profit) that may be incidental or reasonably necessary to the accomplishment of any of the foregoing purposes, including, but not limited to:

- (a) Purchasing, leasing, construction, contracting for, developing and otherwise acquiring, securing and receiving such property, real and personal, tangible and intangible, as may be necessary or convenient for carrying on said operating, leasing, managing, caring for, dealing in and with, using and holding, and selling, distributing, dedicating, or otherwise disposing of the same;
- (b) Lending or borrowing or raising money or otherwise contracting indebtedness and giving any form of obligation and security therefor, including, but not by way of limitation, the issuance of bonds, bills of exchange, promissory notes or other evidence of obligation, and securing same by any property or assets of the corporation;
- (c) Guaranteeing, purchasing, acquiring, holding, owning, using, mortgaging, pledging, selling or disposing of bills, notes, indebtedness, shares, bonds, securities, or other evidence of indebtedness of any and all kinds, including the shares of stock of other corporations;

and to have and exercise all other powers and authorities now, or hereafter conferred on similar corporations under the Idaho Non-Profit Corporation Act.

ARTICLE IV

The initial registered office of the corporation shall be 1297 Highland Drive, Moscow, Idaho 83843 and the initial registered agent at such address shall be David L. Thacker.

ARTICLE V

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from the Federal Income Tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future law), or (b) by a corporation distributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future law).

ARTICLE VI

The management of the corporation shall be vested in a Board of Trustees who shall consist of the Elders of the corporation (church). The number of said trustees shall not be less than three, and the number, qualifications, term of office, manner of election, time and place of meeting, and the powers and duties of trustees shall be as prescribed in the By-Laws of the corporation. The initial Board of Trustees shall be three in number and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial trustees for such period as may be specified in the By-Laws and until their successors are elected and qualified are as follows:

ARTICLE VII

The terms of admission to membership in this corporation shall be those terms set forth in the New Testament, namely: confession of faith in Jesus Christ as God's son and man's Savior and Lord; repentance from sin; immersion in water for the remission of sin. The procedural provision for the membership of the corporation shall be governed by the By-Laws. Each person who is designated in these Articles as an incorporator shall initially be a member of the corporation for the term designated in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VIII

The initial By-Laws of the corporation shall be adopted by its Board of Trustees. The power to alter, amend or repeal the By-Laws of this corporation shall be hereby vested in the members of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX

On dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all corporate assets exclusively for the above stated purposes of the corporation and in such manner, or to such organization or organizations, organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes, as shall at that time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any further law), as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Superior Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
