RE: McBanks LLC – Use of the Word “Bank” in Company Name in Idaho

Dear Ms. McBain:

Your email, received on June 23, 2022, requesting a waiver from the Director for use of the name “McBanks LLC” in the state of Idaho has been reviewed by staff at the Idaho Department of Finance (Department). You represent in your email that you and your husband Shane Trapp purchased real property, which is located in Banks, Idaho. You further indicated that you want to organize a limited liability company, McBanks LLC, for the purpose of holding the property. It is our understanding that McBanks LLC will not conduct the business of banking.

Idaho Code § 26-1202 generally prohibits persons from advertising or transacting business in this state under a name or title containing the word “bank,” “banker,” or a word or words of similar import, unless the person holds a banking charter. The Director of the Department may grant a waiver to allow the use of the word “bank,” or words of similar import in certain circumstances. The waiver may be granted if:

- (a) The person is not engaged in banking or trust business;
- (b) The name or title used is not likely to deceive or mislead an individual to believe that the person is engaged in banking or trust business;
- (c) The name or title, or a name or title similar to it, is not already used by another person doing business in this state; and
- (d) The name or title does not suggest or imply that the person is engaged in unlawful conduct.

Based and conditioned on the information you have provided, it appears that the four factors set forth above, which allow the Director to grant a waiver to use the word “Bank” in your company’s name in Idaho, exist under the facts you have presented to us. I hereby grant a waiver to you to use the name McBanks LLC in accordance with Idaho Code § 26-1202 and note that the Department does not object to use of the word “Bank” in your company’s name.
