ARTICLE XV

The Board of Directors by resolution adopted by a majority of the full Board of Directors may designate from among its members and executive committee and one or more other committees, each of which, to the extent provide in the resolution, shall have all of the authority of the Board of Directors; except that no such committee shall have the authority to:

1. Declare dividends or distributions;
2. Approve or recommend to Shareholders, actions or proposals required by the Idaho Corporation Code to be approved by Shareholders;
3. Fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or any committee thereof;

4. Amend the Bylaws;
5. Approve a plan of merger not requiring Shareholder approval;
6. Reduce earned or capital surplus;
7. Authorize or approve the reacquisition of share unless pursuant to general formula or method specified by the Board of Directors; or
8. Authorize or approve the issuance or sale of, or any contract to issue or sell, shares or designate the terms of a series of a class of shares.

Neither the designation of any such committee by the Board of Directors, the delegation of authority to such committee, nor any action by such committee pursuant to its authority shall constitute compliance by any member of the Board of Directors, not a member of the committee in question, with his responsibility to act in good faith, in a manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Corporation, and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

ARTICLE XVI

Indemnification

The Corporation may indemnify a Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation against liabilities, including judgment, settlements, penalties, fines, and reasonable expenses and legal fees incurred with respect to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal. Such indemnification is permitted by the Corporation if the person seeking indemnification: (i) conducted himself in good faith, (ii) reasonably believed, (A) with respect to conduct in his official capacity for the Corporation, that his conduct was in the Corporation's best interest, or (B) with respect to conduct in other capacities, that his conduct was, at least, not opposed to the Corporation's best interests, and (iii) with respect to criminal proceedings, that he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not be determinative of whether the foregoing standard of conduct has been satisfied.

The Corporation shall not indemnify a Director, Officer, employee or agent in connection with: (i) a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation, in which such person is adjudged liable to the Corporation, or (ii) any proceeding charging improper personal benefit to that person, in which he is adjudged liable on the basis that he improperly received personal benefits(s). However, the Corporation shall indemnify a Director, Officer, employee, or agent who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any proceeding to which he was a party, against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the proceeding.

The indemnification of a person, permitted by the foregoing provisions, must be authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification is permissible under the circumstances because the applicable standard of conduct was met. The determination shall be made by: (i) the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum, which quorum shall consist of the Board of Directors not parties to the proceedings, or (ii) if a quorum cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of a committee of the Board of Directors designated by the Board, which committee shall consist of two or more Directors not parties to the proceeding; except that Directors who are parties to the proceeding may participate in the designation of Directors for the committee. If the quorum cannot be obtained or the committee cannot be established, or if such quorum or committee so directs, the determination shall be made by: (i) independent legal counsel selected by a vote of the Board of Directors or the committee, or if a quorum of the full Board cannot be obtained or a committee cannot be established, by independent legal counsel selected by a majority vote of the full board, or (ii) by the shareholders. If the determination that indemnification is permissible is made by independent legal counsel, the authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of the expenses shall be made by the body which selected that counsel.

A Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of such an application, the court, after giving any notice it considers necessary, if it determines that such person is entitled to mandatory indemnification pursuant to these Articles of Incorporation or law, the court shall order indemnification in which case the court shall also order the Corporation to pay such person's reasonable expenses. If the court determines that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all of the relevant circumstances, whether or not such person meets the standard of conduct set forth in these Articles of Incorporation as a condition of indemnification, or whether such person was adjudged liable in such circumstances which would ordinarily prohibit the Corporation from making indemnification, the court may order such indemnification as it deems proper.

The Corporation may pay for, or reimburse, the reasonable expenses incurred by a Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, who is a party to a proceeding, in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding, if: (i) the Corporation is furnished with a written affirmation of such person's good faith belief that he has met the applicable standard of conduct, (ii) such person furnishes the Corporation with a written undertaking, executed personally or on his behalf, to repay the advance if it is determined that he did not meet such standard of conduct, and (iii) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this paragraph. The foregoing undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of such person and need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a Director, Officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of the Corporation and who, while a Director, Officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, fiduciary or agent of any other foreign or domestic corporation or of any partnership joint venture, trust, or other enterprise or employee benefit plan against any liability asserted against or incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the foregoing provisions.

If an indemnification for advance of expenses to a Director arises out of a proceeding by or on behalf of the Corporation, such indemnification, if made pursuant to the foregoing provisions, shall be reported in writing to the shareholder with or before notice of the next shareholder's meeting.

ARTICLE XVII

Transactions with Interested Directors

No contract or other transaction between this Corporation and one or more of its Directors, or any other corporation, firm, association or entity in which one or more of its directors are Directors, Officers or are financially interested in this Corporation shall be either void or voidable solely because of such relationship or interest or solely because such Directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes, approves, or ratifies such contract or transaction or solely because their votes are counted for such purpose if:

1. The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or committee which authorized, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction by vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested Directors; or
2. The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the Shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent; or
3. The contract or transaction is fair and reasonable to the Corporation. Further, any common or interested Directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction, and such common or interested Director may vote thereat to authorize such contract or transaction with like force and effect as if such person were not such a common or interested Director.
