Articles of Incorporation of
Ruff Riders Antique Car Club Incorporated

Know all men by these presents:

That we, the undersigned, have this day voluntarily associated together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the provisions of Chapter 10 Title 30 of the 1947 Idaho Code for the State of Idaho, and acts amendatory and supplemental thereto, and we do hereby certify and declare as follows:

That we are citizens of the United States and the State of Idaho and in pursuance thereof we do hereby sign and acknowledge the following Articles of Incorporation, in triplicate originals and state as follows:

I

That the name of this organization shall be - Ruff Riders Antique Car Club, Incorporated.

II

That the purposes for which this non profit association is formed are the following:

To perfect an organization of persons of good character and understanding in the community, whose patriotism and loyalty to the government of the United States is unquestioned.

To meet regularly and encourage the collection, preservation, restoration, ownership, operation, exhibition, and competition of motor vehicles described as antique, vintage, classic and special interest.

To act as a source of technical and historical information pertaining to the aforesaid type of motor vehicles.

To encourage careful, prudent and skillful driving on public highways.

To cooperate with other similar groups and organizations throughout the United States.

To carry on all similar activities except such activities deemed to be entirely political, religious, or for the advancement of a private commercial interest.

To establish, maintain and conduct a club for the social enjoyment and accommodation of members and their invited friends, and to provide a clubhouse and other conveniences, and generally to afford the members and their friends all the usual privileges, advantages, conveniences and accommodations of a club.

To purchase, lease from others and otherwise acquire, sell, convey, transfer and otherwise dispose of, lease to others, mortgage, or otherwise encumber real or personal property.

That the association shall have the capacity to act possessed by their natural persons insofar as permitted to do so by the laws of the State of Idaho.

To acquire by purchase, gift or any other legal manner, and to own, hold, sell and transfer and hypothecate shares of stock, or bonds and other debentures of other corporations and of governments and political subdivisions thereof, and to vote the shares of capital stock of corporations while the same are held by this corporation all in the same manner as the natural person may do.

To perform every other lawful act in the furtherance of the objects of this corporation as the natural person would have the right to do.

To appoint such officers, employees, and agents as the business of the corporation may require, and to allow them compensation.

To enter into contracts or obligations of any type or kind that are essential, necessary or proper for the transaction of its ordinary affairs or for the purposes of the corporation.

III

This corporation is not organized for profit and shall not have capital stock. No officer, director or member of this corporation shall be entitled to any of the property, money, dividends, earnings, funds or income of this corporation.
