2. Limitation on Liability. A director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for:

- a. Acts or omissions involving intentional misconduct by a director or a knowing violation of law by the director;
- b. Conduct violating certain distributions by the corporation; or
- c. Any transaction from which the director will personally receive a benefit in money, property, or services to which the director is not legally entitled.

ARTICLE V. INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to its directors, officers, agents, and employees as follows:

1. Directors and Officers. The corporation shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the law now or hereafter in force. However, such indemnity shall not apply on account of:

- a. Acts or omissions of the director and officer finally adjudged to be intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
- b. Conduct of the director and officer finally adjudged to be in violation of the law; or
- c. Any transaction with respect to which it is finally adjudged that such director and officer personally received a benefit in money, property, or services to which the director and officer were not legally entitled.

It shall advance expenses for such persons pursuant to the terms set forth in the by-laws, or in a separate directors' resolution or contract.

2. Employees and Agents Who Are Not Directors. The corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to its employees and agents who are not directors to the extent authorized by the Board of Directors or the by-laws, and consistent with law.

3. Implementation. The Board of Directors may take such action as is necessary to carry out these indemnification and expense advancement provisions. It is expressly empowered to adopt, approve, and amend from time to time such by-laws, resolutions, contracts, or further indemnification and expense advancement arrangements as may be permitted by law, implementing these provisions. Such by-laws, resolutions, contracts, or further arrangements shall include, but not be limited to, implementing the manner in which determinations as to any indemnity or advancement of expenses shall be made.

4. Survival of Indemnification Right. No advancement or repeal of this Article shall apply to or have any effect on any right of indemnification provided hereunder with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

5. Service to Other Entities. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided under this Article shall apply to directors, officers, employees, or agents of the corporation for both (a) service in such capacity for the corporation, and (b) service at the corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.
