SEVENTH

The private property of the stockholders of the corporation shall not be subject to the payment of the corporate debts to any extent whatever, and the shares of the corporation shall not be subject to assessments for the purpose of paying expenses, conducting business, or paying debts of the corporation.

EIGHTH

The number of directors of the corporation shall be specified in the By-Laws and such number may from time to time be increased or decreased in such manner as may be prescribed in the By-Laws, and in accordance with Section 30-1-36 of the Idaho Code provided that the first Board of Directors shall be two (2) in number. No decrease in the number of directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. In the case of an increase in the number of directors, the additional directors may be elected by a majority of the remaining directors even though less than the quorum of the new Board of Directors. The directors so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting or at any special meeting duly called for that purpose and until their successors are elected and qualified.

ELEVENTH

A voluntary sale, lease or exchange of all the property and assets of the corporation, including its good will, may be made by the Board of Directors upon such terms and conditions as it may deem expedient for the best interests of the corporation.

TWELFTH

No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation and no act of the corporation shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of the corporation are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, or are directors or officers of such other corporation. Any director individually, or any firm of which any director may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, any contract or transaction for the corporation, provided that the fact that he or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors or a majority hereof, and any director of the corporation who is also a director or officer of such other corporation, or who is so interested, may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation which shall authorize any such contract or any such transaction with like force and effect as if he were not such director or officer of such other corporation or not so interested.

THIRTEENTH

The Board of Directors is expressly authorized to repeal and amend the By-Laws of the corporation and to adopt new By-Laws, and the corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal, any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, in the manner now, or hereafter prescribed by law, by a majority vote of the stockholders, represented in person or by proxy, at any annual meeting of the stockholders or at any meeting duly called for that purpose, except where the laws of the said State of Idaho otherwise provide.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands on this 15th day of JANUARY, 1997.

Steven P. Nash
