FIFTH

The number of directors of the corporation shall be as specified in the bylaws, and such number may from time to time be increased or decreased in such manner as may be prescribed in the bylaws, provided the number of directors of the corporation shall not be fewer than the number required by law. The initial board of directors shall number two. In case of any increase in the number of directors, the additional directors may be elected by the directors then in office, and the directors so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the stockholders and until their successors are elected and qualified.

A majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders.

Stockholders of the corporation shall not have pre-emptive and preferential rights of subscription to any shares of stock of the corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, or to any obligations of the corporation convertible into stock.

The initial bylaws shall be adopted by the board of directors. The power to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws, subject to repeal or change by action of the shareholders, shall be vested in the board of directors. Such power may be exercised by a majority vote of the board of directors at any annual or special meeting of the board of directors called for that purpose.

The articles of incorporation of this corporation may be amended by a two-thirds vote at any annual or special meeting of stockholders, either upon consideration of a resolution for amendment adopted by the board of directors or upon consideration of a resolution adopted by the holders of not less than ten percent (10%) of all the shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

SIXTH
