It is also the intention that said clauses be construed both as purposes and powers; and generally that the corporation shall be authorized to exercise and enjoy all other powers, rights, and privileges granted to or conferred upon corporations of this kind by the laws of the State of Delaware, and the enumeration of certain powers as herein specified is not intended as exclusive of or as a waiver of any of the powers, rights, or privileges granted or conferred by the laws of the said State now or hereafter in force.

FOURTH. The total number of shares of stock which the corporation shall have authority to issue is two thousand (2,000) of which stock one thousand (1,000) shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each, amounting in the aggregate to One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) shall be preferred stock and of which one thousand (1,000) shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each, amounting in the aggregate to One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) shall be common stock.

The designations and the powers, preferences and rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof are as follows:

The holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled to receive in each year, when and as declared by the board of directors of the corporation, out of any assets of the corporation available for dividends pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware, preferential dividends at the rate of six per cent (6%) per share per annum, and no more, payable annually, semi-annually or quarterly on such days as may be determined by the board of directors, before any dividends shall be declared or paid upon or set apart for the common stock for such year. Such dividends upon the preferred stock shall be non-cumulative, so that the holders of such stock shall be entitled to receive only such dividends not exceeding dividends at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum, during any year, as may, in the unlimited discretion of the board of directors, be declared and made payable.

Whenever the full dividend upon the preferred stock at the rate of six per cent (6%) per share per annum shall have been paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart in any year, then and until such time as no such dividend may be declared by the board of directors out of the remainder of the assets available therefor.

The corporation may at the option of the board of directors, redeem the whole or any part of the outstanding preferred stock on any dividend payment date after the date of issuance by paying One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for each share thereof, together with a sum of money equivalent to dividends at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum on the par value thereof from the date on which the dividends thereon became cumulative to the date fixed for such redemption, less the amount of dividends theretofore paid thereon. Notice of such election to redeem shall, not less than sixty (60) days prior to the dividend date upon which the stock is to be redeemed, be mailed to each holder of stock so to be redeemed at his address as it appears on the books of the corporation. In case less than all of the outstanding preferred stock is to be redeemed, the amount to be redeemed and the method of effecting such redemption, whether by lot or pro rata or other equitable method, may be determined by the board of directors. If, on or before the redemption date named in such notice, the funds necessary for such redemption shall have been set aside by the corporation so as to be available for payment on demand to the holders of the preferred stock so called for redemption, then, notwithstanding that any certificates of the preferred stock so called for redemption shall not have been surrendered for cancellation, the dividends thereon shall cease to accrue from and after the date of redemption as designated, and all rights with respect to such preferred stock so called for redemption, including any right to vote or otherwise participate in the affairs of the corporation, shall terminate after such redemption date except the right of the holder to receive the redemption price therefor, but without interest.

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled, before any assets of the corporation shall be distributed among or paid over to the holders of the common stock, to be paid One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per share, together with a sum of money equivalent to dividends at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum on the par value thereof, from the date or dates upon which dividends on such preferred stock became cumulative to the date of payment thereof, less the amount of dividends theretofore paid thereon. After the making of such payments to the holders of the preferred stock, the remaining assets of the corporation shall be distributed among the holders of the common stock alike, according to the number of shares held by each. If, upon such liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the assets of the corporation distributable as aforesaid among the holders of the preferred stock shall be insufficient to permit of the payment to them of said amount, the entire assets shall be distributed ratably among the holders of the preferred stock.

Except as expressly required by law or as herein otherwise provided, the holders of the preferred stock shall have no voting power nor shall they be entitled to notice of meetings of stockholders, all rights to vote and all voting power being vested exclusively in the holders of the common stock.

The amount of the authorized stock of any class or classes may be increased or decreased by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the corporation entitled to vote.

SIXTH. The minimum amount of capital with which the corporation will commence business is One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

SEVENTH. The names and places of residence of the incorporators are as follows:

NAME	RESIDENCE
H. H. Webb	Wilmington, Delaware
H. G. Boardt	Wilmington, Delaware
A. D. Atwell	Wilmington, Delaware

EIGHTH. The corporation is to have perpetual existence.

NINTH. The private property of the stockholders shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever.

TENTH. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the board of directors is expressly authorized:

To make, alter or repeal the by-laws of the corporation.

To execute and cause to be executed mortgages and liens upon the real and personal property of the corporation.

To set apart out of any of the funds of the corporation available for dividends a reserve or reserves for any proper purpose and to abolish any such reserve in the whole or in part.

By resolution passed by a majority of the whole board, to designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of two or more of the directors of the corporation, which, to the extent provided in the resolution or in the by-laws of the corporation, shall have and may exercise the powers of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and may authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be stated in the by-laws of the corporation or as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the board of directors.

When and as authorized by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding having voting power given at a stockholders' meeting duly called for that purpose, or when authorized by the written consent of the holders of a majority of the voting stock issued and outstanding, to sell, lease or exchange all of the property and assets of the corporation, including its good will and its corporate franchises, upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may be in whole or in part shares of stock in, and/or other securities of, any other corporation or corporations, as its board of directors shall deem expedient and for the best interests of the corporation.

XXXXX. Meetings of stockholders may be held outside the State of Delaware, if the by-laws so provide. The books of the corporation may be kept (subject to any provision contained in the statutes) outside the State of Delaware at such place or places as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors or in the by-laws of the corporation. Elections of directors need not be by ballot unless the by-laws of the corporation shall so provide.
