distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code) or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.)

ARTICLE VII

This corporation may be dissolved in the manner as prescribed by the laws of the State of Idaho. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such a manner, and to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for non-profit purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the board of directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the District Court of the County in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VIII

Individuals, corporations, associations, and partnerships may become members of this corporation subject to any restrictions thereof by the Constitution or the laws of the State of Idaho.

ARTICLE IX

This corporation shall be formed without capital stock. Membership certificates shall be issued to each member and shall not be assignable. The voting power, rights and interest of each member shall be equal, and no member can have or acquire a greater interest than any other member. The terms and conditions of admission to membership shall be prescribed by the ByLaws.

ARTICLE X

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now and hereafter prescribed by the Laws of the State of Idaho, and all rights conferred upon the members of the corporation herein are granted subject to this reservation.

ARTICLE XI

The Board of Directors shall have the full power to adopt, alter, amend, or repeal the ByLaws or adopt new ByLaws in the manner prescribed by statute. Nothing herein shall deny the concurrent power of the members to adopt, alter, amend, or repeal the ByLaws.

ARTICLE XII

The number, qualifications, terms of office, manner of election, time and place of meetings, and powers and duties of the directors shall be prescribed in the Bylaws, but the number of the first directors shall be three, and they shall serve until the first meeting of members and until their successors are elected and qualified, and their names and addresses are as follows:
