for such shares of Preferred Shares.

2. In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, the holders of the Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive $1.10 in cash for each share thereof, together with an amount in cash equal to accrued and unpaid dividends thereon to the date of such payment, before any distribution of the assets of the Corporation shall be made to the holders of the Common Shares. After such payment shall have been made in full to the holders of the outstanding Preferred Shares or funds necessary for such payment shall have been set aside in trust for the account of the holders of the outstanding Preferred Stock so as to be and continue available therefor, the holders of the outstanding Preferred Shares shall be entitled to no further participation in such distribution of the assets of the Corporation and the remaining assets of the Corporation shall be divided and distributed among the holders of the Common Shares then outstanding according to their respective shares. If, upon such liquidation, dissolution, or winding up, the assets of the Corporation distributable as aforesaid among the holders of the Preferred Shares shall be insufficient to permit the payment to them of said amount, the entire assets shall be distributed ratably among the holders of the Preferred Shares. A consolidation or merger of the Corporation, a sale or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets as an entirety, or any purchase or redemption of stock the Corporation of any class, shall not be regarded as a liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation within the meaning of this paragraph.

3. The holders of shares of Preferred Shares shall not have voting rights. The holders of shares of Common shares shall possess full voting rights and powers on all matters voted on by the shareholders of the Corporation (including the election of Directors), shall be entitled to notice of shareholders' meetings and shall vote together. Each holder of Common Shares shall be entitled to one vote for each share thereof held.

4. The holders of Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive from the surplus or net profits arising from the business of the corporation a fixed yearly dividend of ten cents ($0.10) per share, payable quarterly on April 1, July 1, October 1, and December 31 of each year, before any dividends shall be set apart or paid on the Common Shares. Should the surplus or net profits arising from the business of the corporation prior to any dividend day be insufficient to pay the dividends on the preferred shares, such dividends shall be payable from future profits, and no dividends shall, at any time, be paid on the common shares, until the full amount of ten cents ($0.10) per share per year up to that time on all of the preferred shares shall have been paid or set apart.

5. On or after October 1, 2006, the corporation shall have the right from time to time to purchase, redeem, retire, and cancel any or all, of the outstanding Preferred Shares of the corporation, on any dividend date or upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the holder or holders of the Preferred Shares to be purchased, redeemed, retired, or canceled, in such manner and amounts as the board of directors may determine by paying to the respective holders of the shares so retired, or by depositing to their order in the office of the corporation, a sum equal to one dollar and 10/100 ($1.10) per share of the shares so retired and canceled, together with all unpaid accumulated dividends thereon, if any. In case of such deposit written notice shall forthwith be given to the respective holders of the shares so retired or canceled, by mailing such notice to such holders at their last known address as shown by the corporate records.

6. Each holder of Preferred Shares may at any time or from time to time, in such holder's sole discretion and at such holder's option, convert any whole number of all of such holders Preferred Shares into fully paid and nonassessable Common Shares at the rate of one (1) share of Common Shares for each one and one-half share (1 1/2) of Preferred Shares surrendered for conversion. Such conversion shall be made by notifying the directors in writing of the desire to convert said shares and the amount of said shares converted.
