Upon the dissolution of this organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, to provide that the school's assets would pass to a ministry of like faith, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

Article 6: IRS Designation

Is this nonprofit a 501(c)3? Yes

501(c)3 purpose for which the corporation is organized:

As a Christian school, Cornerstone Community Schoolhouse exists for the purpose of training and equipping the next generation in the way they should go so that when they are old, they will not depart from it, in hopes to glorify God. We teach students virtue, wisdom, and to think critically about their studies, how to apply the word of God to understand the world, and to defend, the true living and breathing word of God. We teach a Biblical worldview and keep Jesus at the foundation of each subject. Our goal as a classical Christian school is to challenge students to identify their own areas of weakness and strengths, growing together in grace, grit, gratitude, and grammar, to develop a joy for learning, in compliance with the truth of Scripture. Cornerstone Community Schoolhouse is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, or scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
