EIGHTH: There shall be no personal liability, either direct or indirect, of any director of the corporation to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for any breach or breaches of fiduciary duty as a director; except that this provision shall not eliminate the liability of a director to the corporation or to its shareholders for monetary damages for any breach, act, omission or transaction as to which the Act (as in effect from time to time) prohibits expressly the elimination of liability. This provision is effective on the date of the corporation's incorporation. This provision shall not limit the rights of directors of the corporation for indemnification or other assistance from the corporation. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing provisions of this Article by the shareholders of the corporation, or any repeal or modification of the Act which permits the elimination of liability of directors by this Article, shall not affect adversely any elimination of liability, right or protection of a director of the corporation with respect to any breach, act, omission, or transaction of such director occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

NINTH: In addition to the other powers now or hereafter conferred upon the corporation by these Articles of Incorporation, the Act or otherwise, the corporation shall possess and may exercise all powers to indemnify directors, officers, employees, fiduciaries, and other persons and all powers whatsoever incidental thereto (including, without limitation, the power to advance expenses and the power to purchase and maintain insurance with respect thereto), to the full extent permitted by Idaho law as now in effect and as amended from time to time. The board of directors is hereby authorized on behalf of the corporation, and without shareholder action, to exercise all of the corporation's powers of indemnification, whether by provision in the Bylaws or otherwise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have subscribed these Articles of Incorporation this 30th day of August, 2010.

Colleen Jones, Incorporator
