ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

AID TO CHRISTIAN MISSIONS, INC.

JUN 23 12 20 PM '87
SECRETARY OF STATE

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we the undersigned, residents of the State of Idaho and citizens of the United States of America, of full age of majority, have for the purpose of forming a non-profit corporation pursuant to Chapter 3, Title 30, Idaho Code, for the purposes expressed in Article II hereof, adopted the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation shall be AID TO CHRISTIAN MISSIONS, INC.

ARTICLE II

This corporation is organized for the non-profit purposes of Christian ministry as follows:

(a) To do the work of a Christian evangelist by teaching and preaching the Word of God to the saved and unsaved alike, and to Christian fellowships and churches throughout the world.

(b) To seek to develop a coordinated effort on the part of the wider church body in Idaho for the accomplishment of these corporate purposes and to act as an instrument of unity under the Lordship of and to the Glory of Jesus Christ.

The powers and authority of this corporation shall be as follows:

(a) To operate under the name as set forth in Article I above;

(b) To employ qualified legal counsel and other necessary personnel to carry out the purposes of this corporation;

(c) To accept financial aid from the United States of America and any other source in order to carry out the purposes hereof;

(d) To conduct its activities in accordance with and subject to all applicable State and Federal laws and regulations;

(e) To make reports to its members as may be required in the Bylaws;

(f) To adopt and use a corporate seal;

(g) To make contracts;

(h) By its Board of Directors to appoint such officers and employees as may be decreed proper; define their authority and duties; fix their compensation; require bonds of such of them as it deems advisable and fix the penalty thereof; dismiss such officers or employees, or any thereof for any good reason and appoint others to fill their places;

(i) To adopt Bylaws regulating the manner in which its officers and employees shall be appointed, its property transferred and the privileges granted to it by law exercised and enjoyed;

(j) To acquire, hold, operate, mortgage, hypothecate, and dispose of any property (real, personal or mixed) whenever necessary or appropriate to the carrying out of its lawful functions; and

(k) To exercise such incidental powers as may reasonably be necessary to carry out the business for which the corporation is established, provided that such incidental powers shall be exercised in a manner consistent with tax-exempt status under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States. No part of the net earning of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payment and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) and political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE III

The duration of this corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE IV

The name of the registered agent and the location and post office address of the corporation's registered office in the

State of Idaho is JOHN ECKHART, 3405 Plant Drive, Boise, Idaho, 83703, respectively.

ARTICLE V

The number of directors of this corporation shall not be less than the number required by the laws of the State of Idaho, the exact number and qualifications of which shall be established in the Bylaws. The initial number of directors shall be three (3). The Board of Directors shall conduct all of the business of the corporation except that business specifically delegated to its Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VI

This non-profit corporation is formed without any purpose of pecuniary profit to itself or its members and shall have no capital stock.

ARTICLE VII

The membership of this corporation shall be appointed pursuant to the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VIII

No director, officer or member of the corporation shall be liable for any act or omission of the corporation or personal acts or omissions within the scope of employment or agency. Each director, officer and member of the corporation now or hereafter serving as such, shall be indemnified by the corporation against any and all claims and liabilities to which he has or shall become subject by reason of serving or having served as such director or officer, or by reason of any action alleged to have been taken, omitted, or neglected by him as such director of officer, and the corporation shall reimburse each such person for all legal expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with any such claim or liability, provided, however, that no such person shall be indemnified against, or be reimbursed for any expense incurred in connection with, any claim or liability arising out of his own wilful misconduct.

The amount paid to any officer or director by way of indemnification shall not exceed his actual, reasonable, and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the matter involved, and such additional amount as may be fixed by the Board of Directors.

The right to indemnification hereinabove provided for shall not be exclusive of any rights to which any director, officer or member of the corporation may otherwise be entitled by law.

ARTICLE IX

Upon dissolution of the corporation for any cause, all of the assets and property, both real and personal, then owned or controlled by this corporation shall revert to and become the property of an eleemosynary institution accorded tax-exempt status under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States to be designated by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the just debts and liabilities of the corporation shall first be paid. Upon dissolution, none of the assets or property of the corporation shall devolve to the benefit of any officer, director, employee or member of this corporation.

ARTICLE X

These Articles may be amended at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the members present, provided that only by vote of the membership can these Articles be amended.

ARTICLE XI

The undersigned incorporators shall act as the initial Board of Directors until their successors shall have been duly qualified and elected.
