ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
FOR THE PEOPLE AWARENESS COUNCIL, INC.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS That we, the undersigned, hereby associate ourselves together for the intention of forming a non-profit cooperative association, under the provisions of Chapter 10, Title 30, Idaho Code, and do hereby execute, subscribe and acknowledge in triplicate, the following ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION:

ARTICLE I.

The name by which this corporation shall be known is the People Awareness Council, Inc.

ARTICLE II.

The duration of this corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III.

The principal place of business of this corporation shall be at 571 Fort Hall Avenue, American Falls, County of Power, State of Idaho.

ARTICLE IV.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is formed are as follows:

- (1) To provide an organization to develop community involvement, information and referral services in the areas of alcohol and drug abuse, child abuse, venereal diseases, family problems, school problems, inter-personal problems, pregnancies, suicides, etc.
- (2) To gather statistical data on the foregoing problems and maintain statistical records for purposes of determining needs and programs required to resolve the foregoing.
- (3) To provide a "Hot Line" answering service to provide anonymous assistance to persons encountering difficulties with any of the foregoing with which they cannot cope.
- (4) To provide education and training to local residents in areas of listening techniques, suicide prevention, drug education, telephone counseling, use of community resources, communication skills, and self awareness.

(5) To engage in any act which is reasonably related to the foregoing which will assist in the furtherance of any of the foregoing goals.

(6) To hire necessary staff required to carry on the foregoing programs and/or engage in any fund raising required to defray the costs of the foregoing.

To enable said corporation to carry out these objects and purposes, it shall have the power to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire real and personal property; to solicit and receive gifts and hold the same in trust; to enter into contracts or obligations of any type or kind necessary or proper for the accomplishment of the purposes for which the said corporation is organized, or which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of said corporation or in the furtherance of its activities, or any of them. All of the foregoing purposes as stated in these Articles of Incorporation shall be exclusively for such educational or charitable purposes as are within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.)

ARTICLE V.

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to educational or charitable purposes. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers and directors, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Four hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence levene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE VI.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the District Court in and for the County of Power, State of Idaho, in which the principal office of the corporation is located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VII.

This corporation shall have no capital stock, but shall issue membership certificates to each member thereof; and the rights and interests of all members shall be equal, with none having the right to acquire a greater interest than any of the others;

all of the members are of full legal age, and citizens of the United States.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we have hereunto set our hands this 10th day of October ~~June~~, 1974.
