V.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is formed shall be and are exclusively charitable as used in Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code, such objects and purposes being:

- (1) To constitute a part of the religious society founded and established by Jesus Christ, to receive, preserve and propagate his doctrines and ordinances.
- (2) To receive from any and all available sources funds for the maintenance and operation of such activities.
- (3) To hold title, legal or equitable, to property of any nature in trust for itself or for carrying out of any purpose incidental to its powers, and to sell or encumber any such property, real or personal.
- (4) To solicit, receive and expend the proceeds of fees, donations, bequests and legacies for any purpose for which this corporation is formed.
- (5) To enter into such contracts and to incur such obligations as are consistent with its powers, objects and purposes, but the private property of the officers, directors and members of the corporation shall be exempt from the debts of the corporation, and no officer, director or member shall be individually or collectively liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the corporation.

(9) It is the intention of the incorporators hereof that the foregoing clauses shall be construed both as objects and powers, and the foregoing enumeration of specific objects and powers shall not be construed to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of this corporation, but said corporation shall have the power to do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient or proper for the accomplishment of its purposes, for the attainment of any one or more of its objects hereinabove enumerated, or incidental to the purposes and objects hereinafter named, and which are permitted under the laws of the State of Idaho under which this corporation is organized, to the same extent and as fully as a natural person might or could do. Provided, that this corporation shall not have the power to conduct, and shall not conduct, activities not in furtherance of charitable, scientific or educational purposes as those terms are used in Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code, 1954.

VI.

The Board of Directors of this corporation may meet and transact the business hereof either at the principal place of business herein designated, or at such other place as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

VII.

The bylaws of this corporation may be repealed, amended, altered, or new bylaws adopted at any annual meeting, or any special meeting of the members called for that purpose, by a vote representing not less than a majority of the members, or by the written consent, duly acknowledged, in the same manner as conveyances of real property are required to be acknowledged, of a majority of the members, which written consent may be in more than one instrument. Furthermore, the Board of Directors of this corporation shall have the power to repeal, amend and alter the bylaws of the corporation, and to adopt new bylaws, by vote of not less than a majority of the members of said Board of Directors; provided, that the Board of Directors shall not make or alter any bylaws fixing the conditions of membership, meetings of members, the qualifications, number, classification, term of office, manner of filling vacancies or compensation of members of the corporation or members of the Board.

VIII.

Management of the affairs of the corporation is to be vested in the members pursuant to Section 30-314(c), Idaho Code. Each member shall be entitled to one vote on any matter calling for a vote of the members. Provisions for membership shall be prescribed in the bylaws.

IX.

As the corporation vests its management in its members,
