The acceptance of shares in the Corporation shall be a waiver of such preemptive or preferential right, which, in absence of this provision, might otherwise be asserted by a shareholder of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI Regulation of Internal Affairs of Corporation

1. VOTING OF SHARES. A shareholder of record of an outstanding share of Series A Common Stock or Series B Common Stock of the Corporation may vote the number of shares owned by him or it times the votes per share (of the series of share) on each matter submitted to a vote of the shareholders, and may vote such shares in person or by proxy in accordance with Idaho law.

2. MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS. All meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be called and held at such time and place, and in such manner, as provided in the By-laws of the Corporation. 3. QUORUM FOR SHAREHOLDERS MEETINGS. At any meeting of shareholders, a majority (more than 50%) of the votes of the shares of the Corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at such meeting, unless otherwise provided in the By-laws of the Corporation.

A director so elected shall hold office for the term for which he is elected and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. At each election for directors of the Corporation, every shareholder of record entitled to vote at such election may vote the number of shares owned by him or it times the votes per share (of the series of share) for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he or it has the rights to vote; provided that a shareholder has no right to accumulate his or its votes with regard to such election.

5. VACANCIES IN BOARD OF DIRECTORS. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of any remaining directors, though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor. The shareholders may elect his successor at the next annual meeting of shareholders or at any special meeting duly called for that purpose and held prior to the next annual meeting. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors may be filled by the Board of Directors for a term of office continuing only until the next election of directors by the shareholders.

6. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of one (1) or more members. The number of directors shall be fixed by, and in the manner provided in, the By-laws of the Corporation. In the absence of a by-law providing for the number of directors, the exact number of directors shall be one (1), which director shall in absence of any other duly elected directors, constitute the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

7. NOTICE OF DIRECTORS MEETINGS. Notice of directors meetings shall be in the manner prescribed in the By-laws of the Corporation.

9. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS MEETINGS. A majority of the number of directors provided for in the By-laws of the Corporation constitutes a quorum for the transaction of any and all business. The act of such majority present at a meeting of directors at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors and Corporation.

10. ACTION BY DIRECTORS WITHOUT A MEETING. Any action required or desired to be taken at a meeting of the directors of the Corporation may be taken without a meeting if a consent, in writing, setting forth the action so taken or to be taken, shall be signed by all directors, and such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

11. RESIDENCE AND QUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS. The directors of the Corporation need not be residents of the State of Idaho, and may or may not be shareholders.

12. LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS. A director of the Corporation is not under any condition liable for any acts described under Section 30-1-48, of the Idaho Business Corporation Act.

13. INITIAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The initial Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of one (1) member, which director shall hold office until the first meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation and until his successor, if any, is duly elected and qualified. Any two (2) or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of president and secretary.

15. EXECUTIVE AND OTHER COMMITTEES. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and one or more other committees.

16. DELEGATION OF DUTIES BY BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The Board of Directors may delegate certain duties in respect to the affairs of the Corporation to various officers, or to committees selected by the Board of Directors or to other persons selected, engaged, appointed or employed by the Board of Directors, and may define the duties and compensation of the various officers, agents, and servants of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may also require and fix the amount and conditions of bonds from the various directors, officers, agents, servants and employees.

17. BY-LAWS OF CORPORATION. The initial By-laws of the Corporation shall be adopted by initial Board of Directors. The power to alter, amend or repeal the By-laws or adopt new by-laws, subject to repeal or change by action or the shareholders, is vested in the Board of Directors. The By-laws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the Corporation not inconsistent with Idaho law or these articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE VII
Potential Conflicts of Interest

1. LOANS TO EMPLOYEES AND DIRECTORS. The Corporation shall not lend money to or use its credit to assist its directors without authorization in the particular case by the shareholders, and may lend money to and use its credit to assist any employee of the Corporation or of a subsidiary or affiliate, including, without limitation, any such employee who is a director of the Corporation, if the Board of directors decides that such loan or assistance may benefit the Corporation.

2. TRANSACTIONS WITH INTERESTED DIRECTORS. No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or any other corporation, firm, association or entity in which one or more of its directors or officers are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction or because his or their votes are counted for such purposes, if:

(a) The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or committee which authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested directors; or

(b) The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent, in which vote or consent such interested directors may participate to the extent that they are also shareholders; or

(c) The contract or transaction is fair and reasonable to the Corporation and the fact of such relationship or interest is fully and fairly disclosed or known to the Corporation.

3. COMMON OR INTERESTED DIRECTORS. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction.

ARTICLE VIII
Liability and Indemnification

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS. Every director, officer, employee, servant and agent of the Corporation shall be fully protected and held harmless by the Corporation as follows:

(a) The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses and costs (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(b) The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses and costs (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross and willful negligence or misconduct in the performance of this duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

(c) To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) or (b) hereof, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified by the Corporation against expenses and costs (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

(d) Any indemnification under subsections (a) or (b) of this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) or (b). Such determination shall be (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceedings, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the shareholders.

(e) Expenses and costs (including attorney's fees) incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized in the manner provided in subsection (d) upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

(f) The indemnification provided by this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(g) The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provision of this Article VIII.
